Rams losers 2 of 3

on net with many drives whizzing by or over the net.
Coach Brimblecombe stated that "I was happy with the way the team played. Our game plan to check the Rangers closely because we knew they were tough.

Powerhouse
"In fact, I think the Rangers have a real powerhouse this season. They've got most of their last season's team back."

Brimblecombe is satisfied with the progress of his young team saying that "with a green team you usually have to wait 10 or 15 games to see what you have.

"This team is settling around already and they're going to win big before too long. Your aim is always to make the playoffs and there's no way this team won't do it."

He also pointed to the "togetherness of our squad this season. They've got spirit to burn. We're still missing a good defenseman but we hope to get a player from the Petes. Then we'll be set."

Ouch
The 9-4 shellacking at the hands of the Royals is the type of game you blot from your mind.

The Royals rapped in four goals in the first 10 minutes and ended up leading the Rams 5-1 at the end of the first 20 minutes. It was 6-2 going into the third.

Despite the loss, the Rams outshot the Royals 38-37.

Richmond Hill was caught off guard by the hungry Royal Yorkers who had gone winless in their first five starts.

The Rams, on the other hand, were playing their second game in two nights. Royal York came flying out of the starting gate and popped in four goals.

Mitch Lovelock, rookie Ram net-minder, made his first start of the season and appeared tense although he could hardly be blamed entirely for the early 6-1 deficit.

Loose play
He was replaced by Stankiewicz at the beginning of the second period. In the fateful opening frame the Rams played loosely in their own end and left the beleaguered Lovelock at the mercy of the Royals' determined snipers.

The second and third periods were fairly even but the Rams at no time were able to get any closer than four goals.

For Royal York it was Pat Leone, Bob Dunford and Joe Sannuto scoring twice with singles to Dave Robb, John Gibb and Tom Connerty.

Nigro gets 2
For the Rams it was Nigro scoring two goals with singles to Bill Stephenson and Mike Gallagher.

It was a vastly different story Tuesday night at home for the Rams who rallied from an early 4-1 deficit to win going away.

Richmond Hill opened the scoring in the first period as rookie Dave Baker who popped in three goals to lead the offensive with three goals also, going to Bill Colville and the others to Nigro, Mitch Edwards, Billy Stephenson.

The Rams visit Ajax tomorrow night (Thursday) and are at Weston Friday night. Royal York is here for a game the following Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

'Birds drub Orillia

start of the game. It was all over right there.

Thornhill added three more in that period and led 6-3 going into the final period.

Dorsey solid
Dean Dorsey played a solid game in the twines for Thornhill stopping 34 shots while his teammates were firing 39 at the opposition's end.

Saturday's game saw the Thunderbirds carry a 2-1 lead into the third period against Orillia on goals by Glen Daurio and Bob Hunter (from Scott Howson).

That's when the roof collapsed and the homesters rapped in four straight goals from the sticks of Rooky Clark, Cam Devine, Jeff Clark and John Morris. The Morris goal came off a penalty shot.

Thornhill outshot Orillia 38-24 on the game with Dean Dorsey and Hout sharing the twines.

Shoot-out
The Midland shoot-out saw Howson and Rooky Pantalone scoring three goals apiece with Mike Johns adding a goal and four assists. Bruce Clatworthy also had a goal and three assists. Other goals went to Al Delfabro, Greg Chappell, and Bruce Clatworthy.

Thornhill outshot Midland 51-29 on the game.

It was Howson's fifth, sixth and seventh goal since joining the club this season.

The Thunderbirds are off till Oct. 29 when they play in Barrie. They have no home game next Monday night. Their next home game is the following Monday at 8 p.m. against Owen Sound.
