Drs. Phillip and MacGregor for their skill and care upon completion of successful surgery during my stay at York Central Hospital. This being my first time in 70 years to be hospitakind and loving care provided by the nursing services. Their cheerful attitheir many duties under what at times seemed a very heavy work load was an inspiration to me as no doubt it was to other patients. Who can measure the therapeutic value of kind loving care? A "Tip of the hat"
