Don Reed
... symphony guest
Prodigy

Don Reed, 15-year-old violin prodigy, is equally at home with the old timers as the old masters. He will play Paganini's Concerto in D Major as guest soloist with York Symphony Orchestra, Oct. 29 at Marylake Shrine in King City.

Don recently won the old-time fiddler's contest in Shelbourne, for a change of pace.

"Rape..." gets under way

Those amazon women of ancient Greece apparently weren't so tough after all, which is probably why Heracles (John Illingworth) is taking out his frustration on Theseus (Brian Moore). The two are rehearsing for "Rape of the Belt," the next production of the Curtain Club. Looking on are, (left to right): Lina Visconti, Vickery Cook and director Cicely Thomson, Nov. 26 - Dec. 11.

"Silly" CBC session

TORONTO — The CBC is taping a new quiz show called "Yes You're Wrong," and if you think that has anything to do with you, yes, you're right.

The first show, which features Rod Coneybeare as host, will be taped Nov. 1 at 8 p.m. at the Aladdin Theatre, 2637 Yonge St., just north of Eglinton, and the public is invited.

We need your applause the producers say, as a "great bunch of people come up with a lot of silly answers to a lot of silly questions." Those providing the silly answers will be Dubarry Campau, Carol Comisso, David Scott-Atkinson, Kildare Dobbs, Ted Roberts and Murray Soupcoff.

"Yes You're Wrong" will be broadcast on both the CBC AM and FM networks on Tuesday, starting in November.

Taping dates until the end of the year are Nov. 1, 15 and 29; and Dec. 6.

To reserve your seat, call Margot, 925-3311, local 2003.
