

Youths charged after shooting incident

RICHMOND Hill — Complaints of pellet guns being fired at children and through windows, resulted in the arrest of five Markham youths last week, York Regional Police here reported.

Police said the first shootings were reported Halloween night by a Hughson Street resident, who said someone was firing at children on the street.

A few nights later, Marie Murgaski, 24 Hughson, and George Felgate, 28 Hughson, said pellets had been fired through their living room windows.

Facing charges of causing mischief to private property and malicious damage, are John Ingram, 16, of 29 Hughson; David Webster, 16, of 20 Hughson; and Dale Banton, 16, of 21 Doncrest, Thornhill.

Bruce Felgate, 16, of 28 Hughson, and a 15-year-old juvenile, face a charge of dangerous use of firearms.

Fore!
A wild ride around Summit Golf Course, Yonge Street in Richmond Hill on the weekend, caused an estimated $1,000 damage.

Police said someone using a small car, damaged several greens and the fairway in his romp.

Alarm pays off
A burglar alarm at John Evelyn Golf Course, Concession 10, Markham, brought police on the run and put the thieves on the lam last week.

Lest We Forget
The entire proceeds of a Royal Canadian Legion Poppy box at Dairy Queen, Wellington Street E., Markham, were taken from the front counter, police reported.

Also noted
Tool boxes were the favorite targets in Woodbridge last week.

and various other golf supplies.

However, the thieves left their loot behind when they saw the police and it was all recovered.

Ronald Deeton, Froom Crescent, Regina, reported the theft of a box of tools, articles of clothing and a CB radio from his camper truck, parked at the rear of Henry's Auto Body, Islington Avenue, Nov. 7.

Two tool boxes and a heater were reported taken from the Ledger Lane Building in Woodbridge, either Nov. 5 or 6. There was also damage to the building.

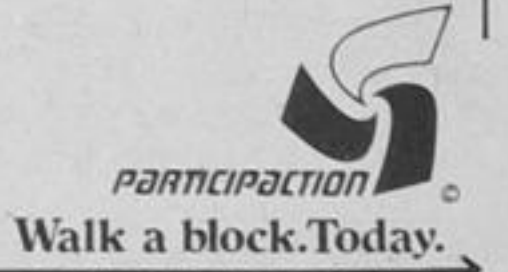

Police have some suspects in mind.

Guido Dandrea, RR 1, Gormley, lost $2,150 in cash and $5,000 in jewelry in a break-in at his home last week.

At total of $353 in Olympic and antique coins was taken from the home of Keith Scott, Con. 8 Schomberg.
