Hill carpenters softball champs

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Bantam Carpenters won the York Simcoe softball championship Nov. 7 in somewhat cool man, cool weather at Crosby Park. They downed Markham 8-6 in a sudden death seven inning game. Markham was representing the south and Richmond Hill the north. The top of the first inning saw Richmond Hill scoring three runs off two singles by Matt Zurich and Rob Steel and three doubles by Kevin Shipcott, Gary Wilkinson and Dan O'Sullivan. The Carpenters picked up one more in the second on singles by Gord Fournier, Zurich and Shipcott. The third inning saw another run scored on a double by Steel and singles by O'Sullivan and Bill Neilson. Markham garnered two runs in the bottom of the third on two walks and one hit by Greenway. Greenway then hit a homerun in the fourth inning to make the score 5-3. Richmond Hill scored one more in the fifth on a walk and triple by O'Sullivan. Markham notched three more runs in the sixth to tie the game at 6-6.

king city

KING — Two King City artists have a show and sale of their work until Nov. 27 at the Maple library. Dora Dawson and Elinor Tolman both produce mainly landscapes working in the medium of oil. Mrs. Dawson won a first prize in the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Public Forum
King Township volunteers of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society present a public forum on Nov. 22 at 8:15 p.m. at King City United Church. Guest speaker will be Dr. Hugh Little, rheumatologist, along with Ross Morrison, executive director, and Mark Courtmanche, local field representative.

Art at library
A walk through Jennifer Durkin's art exhibition at King Township Public Library from Nov. 13-27 will be a walk into a world of modern art new to many people. Through pictures composed of found objects, collages and prints, Durkin says she expresses the meanings she finds in objects old, used and abandoned, and represents also the life of the human beings around her. She sees the world in a constant state of change, often ambiguous, and uses images to reflect this. Durkin is a King City woman who graduated from King City Secondary School and later received a degree from Queen's University in Kingston. She has exhibited at the Ontario Society of Artists Annual Exhibit where she received a Purchase Award in 1975, at the Fifth British International Print Biennial, Bradford, England and at the University of London, England. The exhibition at the library is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Rocky start for Black's

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Black and Stewart Real Estate Minor Midget A team are off to a rocky start. They were bombed 14-2 by Orillia Nov. 12 after losing earlier by 6-2 and 5-2 earlier to Barrie. Things looked like they might be looking up when the locals tied Newmarket 2-2. A spokesman for the team had this to say: "There are times when excuses are acceptable through injuries, suspensions. "But in this case there are no excuses. When the players realize they have to play as a team and not as individuals then and then only will they start winning. "We have those kids on the team who try and try hard, only to be frustrated by the 'who cares and I know better than the coach' types." "Yes we do have them. So wake up fellows. The season can be short or long. It's your choice."

Whiffs 13
Winning pitcher was Gary Wilkinson who struck out 13 big hitters. Dan O'Sullivan went four for four and had three RBI's while Gord Fournier had three for four.

Hill swimmers take home wins

RICHMOND HILL — Members of the Richmond Hill Aquatic Club came up with an impressive showing Sunday at the Lakeshore Swim Club Fall 'B' meet. It was a long meet with 40 full events for 15 competing swim clubs including RHAC. The green from Richmond Hill accounted for many ribbons — the unofficial tally was: A total of four firsts, seven seconds, three thirds, and three fourths, seven fifths, and four sixths. Richmond Hill finished second in the 200 yard free style relay for boys ages 11 to 12. The girls finished first in the 200 yard relay for 11 and 12 year olds. The Hill club came up with two seconds in the 400 yard relays for boys 13 and 14; and 15 and 17.

Justice shows way
Individually, Stephen Justice showed the way with ribbons in four events — firsts for the 200 yard I.M. and 100 yard back stroke; second for the 200 yard free style and 100 yard breast stroke. Richmond Hill had double ribbon wins from Helga Pape, Stephen Davey, Christine Bogie and Harold Mag and Doug Clarke. Andrew Pape and Ron Gelineau had ribbon times of 47.12 and 47.82 seconds in the 50 yard back stroke for boys 10 and under. It was second and fourth for the Ann Grainger and Karen Branch in the 100 yard back stroke for girls 13 and 14.
