Big curling secret's out!

By Ron Taylor

RICHMOND HILL — The secret is out. Dave Pulchinski has been carried by his team and has taken all the credit. This last weekend the other members of his team skipped rituals to victory in the annual Saints and Sinners Spiel.

His lead, Bill Rice, curling with Harry Elkins, Audrey Loudon and June Beaumont, won first prize. Bill and Harry shared skipping duties and each won a game.

Dave's regular second, Orton Beaumont, won second prize with his rink of Joan Moon, Jim Park and Nancy Dyson. Wes Draper, his regular vice, won third prize with Marnie Wilson, Jim Lane and Roberta McLay.

One game high
One game high winner went to Leigh Raymond and his rink of Art Miller, Fran McCann and Mary Ann McConnell. Between games, Phyl Richards and her committee of Ferg Abrams, Marnie Ferguson, Joyce Abrams, Lynn Anderson and Hazel Olynee ran a very successful Boutique. Janet Thomson organized the curling.

Stephenson Spiel
The annual Stephenson Spiel was held last Thursday with top prize going to Jean MacLeod and her rink of Pat Thomson, Pat Naylor and Kathy Lukasavitch. Second place went to Peg MacPherson and her rink of Helen Awde, Betty Kerr and Betty Schwan. Terry Powell skipped her rink of Heln Schenoffer, Florence Rintoul and May Baillie to third place. One high game winner was Faye Weiss and her rink of Carole Wood, Joanne Cloxom and Fran Anderson.

Newly wed
Our newly wed Dan Milford took time out from his honeymoon recently to help the rink of Carl Hanson, Wayne Hindmarch and skip

hill curling column

Clark Bullock to win three games in the first qualifying round of the Ontario Sun Life Invitational Spiel.

This rink won $400 for their efforts and on Dec. 4 will play three more games and have a chance for $2,400 in prizes.

Thanks to Dan's wife, Shawn, for her support.

Ladies spiel
On Nov. 29 our club will host the North American Life Ladies Open Spiel with games at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. The remaining games will be played at other clubs throughout the week.

Several local curlers travelled to Penetang last week and participated in a very competitive two day spiel. Armon Tripp finished high in the third event with two wins with his rink of Murray Thorpe, Dave Lackey and Bob Costello.

Barry Wilson and Stewart Paul joined with two Midland curlers, Ed McGrath and John Jones and won two games in the second event.

Barry's losses were to Ron Wills of St. Georges and district Colt winners.

Mixed league
The Mixed Curling League is holding a Millionaires Night next Saturday so come on out and break the bank. Tickets are available from Ross Wood.

My apologies to Pat and Herb Thomson, Ross and Muriel Clark for reporting two losses in a recent "Guest Day" Spiel. Two wins should have been reported.

Scotia peewees lose by 3-2 despite great goaltending

RICHMOND HILL — Strong goaltending by Glen Strothers and Robin Wilkinson was not quite enough as the Richmond Hill Scotia Bank Minor Peewee's second team was defeated 3-2 by Thornhill last Friday.

Both Hill goals were scored by Geoff Johnston with an assist going to Donny Wilson.

The team executive is grateful for the assistance its goalie is getting from Donny Fawcett every Wednesday morning at practice. Donny is the goalie for the Peewee 'A' team.

Hill bantams tie Orillia

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Major Bantams tied Orillia 5-5 after being down 4-0 at the end of the first period in a Nov. 14 game.

Jeff Briggs started it by putting one in from the point after they changed hands. Two minutes later Orillia scored again and that's the way the second period ended. The fired-up Hillers came out skating in the final period with Craig Halliday scoring from close in with the assist going to Doug Jones.

Danny Henderson then connected for another goal with the help of Jeff Briggs and David Allen. Richmond Hill began to look like they could take the game when they got two more quick goals.

They were from Ken Main assisted by Halliday; and Allen from Halliday and Henderson.

Other results:
Whip Chinguacousy Richmond Hill 5, Chinguacousy 3. Richmond Hill opened the scoring in the first on a goal by Henderson from Maurice Del Fabro but Chinguacousy came back to tie the game.

Richmond Hill went ahead in the second on goals by Gord Fournier from Halliday; and Henderson from Allen. Five minutes into the third period it was Mark Austin putting Richmond Hill further ahead assisted by Ken Main.

Chinguacousy came back with two goals but Fournier put the game away assisted by Halliday. This was an exhibition match.

Low to Barrie
Barrie 4, Richmond Hill 2. Richmond Hill's Main opened the scoring on a low shot to the point with assists from Steve Shannon and Fournier.

From there on in the Hill team could do nothing right with Barrie scoring four unanswered goals in the second period. The third saw Richmond Hill getting its second and last goal Henderson slotting one in from Allen and Halliday.

Coach Ray Floyd announced after the game that he will now be assisted by Blair Robinson. Team manager will be George Jordan and trainer Larry Trollope.

I'm switching

In the last election I voted for the Mayor; I also voted for Gord Rowe as Regional Councillor. This election I'm switching my vote for Mayor to Gord Rowe who, I feel as a business man would be better able to bring under control our ever escalating municipal tax rate.

Marjorie Lyon.
