

A fair tree

CFRB announcer, Bill Anderson of Richmond Hill, is shown with wife and family decorating a Christmas tree for this year's Royal Agricultural Fair. Joining in the effort, an annual occasion held in co-operation with the Christmas Trees Growers Association, are Glenn, 9, Beverley, 9, and Mrs. Anneke Anderson.

Chapman speaker at parent meet

THORNHILL — Sam Chapman, the controversial director of the York County Board of Education, will be the guest speaker at the Dec. 1 meeting of the parent liaison group for Bayview Fairways Public School. This is a general meeting open to the public starting at 7 p.m. at the school. Chapman will not discuss the coming election but he is expected to be asked about values education, and other regional and local issues such as when the Johnsville public school will be built.

Band will be

The school board has no bands in its junior public schools, but Bayview Fairways students will have the chance to be in a band under the volunteer direction of Joseph Taccogna, a teacher and musician elsewhere and a member of the parent liaison group. The sessions will be held Sunday mornings starting Jan 9. So far 20 children from Johnsville, Bayview Fairways and Post Wood Lane have signed up and there is room for 10 more.

The parent liaison group also has a cultural activities committee and this week arranged a wheel demonstration by Pam Martin of the York Potter's Guild and ceramics sculpture by Mazneen Sadiq for the children to see.

All candidates

The Bayview Ratepayers Association is holding an all-candidates night this Thursday at 7:45 p.m. at Bayview Fairways Public School. School board and council candidates in wards 1, 2 and 7 and candidates for regional council and mayor in Markham are invited to attend.
