UNIONVILLE — The congregation of St. Andrew's United Church in Markham has shown interest in a recent discussion at a board of education meeting on whether values education courses should be taught in high schools.

As a result of their concern, the social action committee of St. Andrew's has planned a values education and information forum for today (Wednesday), at Markham District High School, at 8 p.m.

For those who are interested in learning more about Values Education, speakers will explain the concepts of the course, and give ideas of who should teach it, as well as answer questions from the audience including the board of education's plans for including it in the curriculum.

Sell Unicef Cards

This Saturday, volunteers are needed to sell UNICEF Christmas cards at the Markham Centennial Library.

If you are willing to volunteer an hour or two of your time between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., call Willa DeGuerre at 294-1987.

If you have not yet bought this year's supply of Christmas cards, you may wish to have a look at the beautiful selection of cards which UNICEF will make available at the library, all of which depict the work of some of our finest artists.

Meals on Wheels

Senior citizens of Unionville and Markham may be interested in the Meals on Wheels program, which provides low-cost, hot lunchtime meals to seniors as well as disabled and convalescent area residents.

The meals will be delivered to your home three times per week, and you may use the service for as long as you need or wish it — it is not necessary to contract Meals on Wheels for any set time period.

For more information please call Bev McArthur at 294-6343.
