Merry Christmas with Herbs, is the title of the demonstration by Donna Sheridan tonight, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m. at the community centre library.

A member of the Herb Society of America, Donna Sheridan will demonstrate the use of herbs for Christmas decorations and recipes — punch and cookies. Come and join in some pre-Christmas "wassail" at the library.

Ms Sheridan was involved in the planning of the herb garden at Black Creek Pioneer Village and has participated in the Herb Society's annual Herb Fair.

Puppeteers
The Markham Centennial Library Puppeteers will be presenting a Christmas puppet show for the children on Saturday, December 4 at 10.30 a.m. at the community centre library.

Christmas concerts
Teachers and pupils at Henderson Avenue Public School are busy preparing for the annual Christmas concerts. The primaries will give their concert on Monday December 20, and the juniors on Tuesday, Dec. 21. Parents are asked to keep the dates free so that they can come along and support the children.

Fair success
The Craft Fair sponsored by Eta Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was a huge success at the community centre Nov. 14. Many of the craftsmen displaying their work and the shoppers felt that the gracious atmosphere of the fair made for a delightful afternoon.

Films Saturday
Saturday afternoon films for children at the Gallanough library during December are as follows: Dec. 4 "The Hoosegow", Christmas in Pioneer Times and Ski Whiz. On Dec. 11th, First Christmas Tree and Sleeping Beauty. December 18, Little Drummer Boy and Big Business.

success of the show was due to a team effort by her Ways and Means Committee, Judi Hamill, Pirjo Koivisto, Jean Portus and Evelyn Laga, and to the full cooperation of all chapter members.
