Author to visit library

Correspondent Helen Adams 881-1621

UNIONVILLE — Bill Freeman, author of the award-winning children's novel The Shantymen of Cache Lake and the recently released Last Voyage of the Scotian, will be the guest at the children's Saturday morning program on Dec. 11 at Markham Centennial Library. Freeman will show slides and tell authentic tales about sailing ship days in Canada. Copies of both his books will be available for unionville

purchase and autographing by the author.

Craft sale

Unionville Minor Hockey Women's Auxiliary held a Christmas Arts and Crafts Sale at Crosby Memorial Arena last Friday and Saturday. Along with the profits from the craft shop, which the auxiliary runs at the arena all winter long, the proceeds of this sale will be used in aid of minor hockey in Unionville.

If you missed the sale, check the craft shop for beautiful Christmas gift ideas, crafts and Christmas decorations for your own home.

Political forum

Area residents will have a chance to meet the candidates for the board of education at a Meet the Candidates Night this evening (Wednesday) at St. Andrew's United Church in Markham. The meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m. and promises to provide informative and interesting discussion.

Villa bazaar

The ladies auxiliary of Union Villa held its annual Christmas Bazaar last Saturday. As with their yearly fall rummage sale, proceeds from the bazaar will go towards the purchase of Villa necessities. Profits from previous sales have provided the Villa with library materials, dental lab equipment and kitchen equipment.

This year's bazaar offered handicrafts made by Villa residents and auxiliary members, as Christmas decorations, toys, knitting, sewing, and home baking.

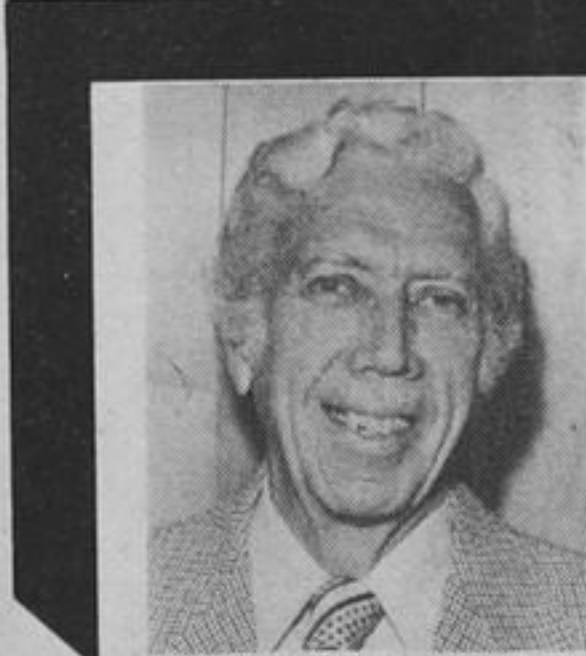

Puppets, crafts

Unionville Centennial

Library has a new series of programs for children, aged six to 12, for the month of December. The programs are held every Saturday at 11 a.m., and will feature Christmas decorations with Elly Zwart on Dec. 4, a Christmas Puppet Show on Dec. 11, and a Christmas crafts class with Isobel Heighway on Dec. 18.

At the first program, only the first 10 children will participate, and on Dec. 18, only the first 20, but other children are welcome to watch and get ideas on which they can work at home.

The story hour for preschoolers, held at the library on Tuesdays at 10 a.m., will break for Christmas after the Dec. 14 program. The story hour will resume Jan. 4.
