

Building company theft loss is $2500

MAPLE — Thieves added insult to injury when they broke into Cadillac Building Products, Keele St., last week

According to police, after breaking into one part of the building, the thieves then used some of the company's cutting torches to open a rear door. Once inside, they attacked a safe, but failed to open it.

They did, however, get away with $386 from the office, a set of wrenches, an electric hammer drill and an impact drill, for a total loss of $2,500.

In the Hill

The following thefts were reported in Richmond Hill: Allan McWilliams, Hillview Rd., lost $275 in cash and liquor to thieves; at Kinnear Pontiac Buick Ltd., 9612 Yonge St., $354 in rear tires and rims were taken from a truck; in the Oak Ridges area, John Bolton, Puccini Dr., reported the theft of a stereo, 8-track player, two speaker, a typewriter, attach case, $42 in cash and $50 worth of meat, for a total loss of $1,442.

Also noted

Yonge Steeles Motors Ltd., Glencairn Rd., Thornhill, lost $1,807 worth of goods in a break-in; a total of $150 damage was done to Holy Cross Cemetery, 8361 Yonge St., Thornhill, by someone driving through it in a golf cart; Anna Basso, RR 1, King, reported the theft of $4,500 in jewelry and other goods; a chandelier valued at $500, was taken from a model home on 19th Side Rd., King Township.

Woodbridge, too

Thieves also hit the Woodbridge area, with thefts from two industries and a private citizen.

Donald Jemmipp, Gordon Dr., was robbed of a hydraulic gun and two tow truck jacks at his premises; Metro Works' Department, was robbed of $1,900 in heavy construction tools from its quarters at Steeles and Kipling Avenues; Nick's Esso, Highway 27, was robbed of 300 gallons of gas from its underground tank.

Charges laid in accident

RICHMOND HILL — John McBain, 30, of Colbourne Ave., faces charges of failing to remain at the scene of an accident and causing public mischief, as a result of an incident in Richmond Hill, Nov. 29.

According to York Regional Police, a car was involved in an accident with another vehicle on Yonge St., about 11:25 p.m., but then took off right afterwards.

The driver proceeded north to Church St., where he hit another car, and then ran off, abandoning his own, police said.

From there he went to York Central Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises; he then called police and told them his car had been stolen, police said.

McBain was arrested the next day.

Maple pony grand champ

with hackneys to make a better quality breed.

The judges at the fairs look for small ears and head, a fine neck and fine legs. They also look for ponies that lift their feet high when trotting, he says.

The Ellas have been entering the Royal Winter Fair for 12 years and have won numerous prizes.
