To heck with style

Mom and Dad might be able to identify the two above warriors for Barrow's Insurance and Charlton Hardware of the Richmond Hill Minor Hockey House League. But they were moving too fast for photographer Bruyns. In any case, it's typical of the average day in the life of a house league player every Saturday in arenas throughout, well, throughout the country.

Genmark boys edge Oro

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Genmark Minor Midget II's continued to improve with a 2-1 win over Oro and a tough 5-3 loss to Barrie Sunday.

It was a shaky win in Oro but the Richmond Hill team had two spark plugs going for them in the persons of goalie Joe Farrell and a great defence.

Farrell went about winning his first game and the only goal that got by him was a gift from his own defence.

Another highlight of the contest was the fact no penalties were called for either team.

Richmond Hill goals were by Nick Assisi from Jack Vantol and Joel Reeves; and Reeves from Vantol. The squad got player help from the 'A' squad.

The game in Barrie saw Richmond Hill only able to dress 11 skaters but the team came up with a fine game and had Barrie fading at the end.

Rob Vanderveldt was in the nets for the first time in a month and played well. He deserved a better fate as the two goals that got by him resulted from deflections.

Goals for Richmond Hill: Tom Stubbs from Matt Zurich and Shawn
