

$10,000 in safe, tire thefts

RICHMOND HILL — Police reported two big thefts in Richmond Hill last week.

The first occurred at Broadway Datsun, Yonge St., where 156 car tires and 32 wheels, valued at $6,213, were taken.

Police said there were no signs of forcible entry.

At the Canadian Legion, Ohio Rd., thieves attacked a safe after breaking in and marked up a total of $4,726 in cash and damage.

Downhill for skiers

Area skiers have more than just the slopes to worry about, apparently, when they try out their skis; they also have ski thieves.

At Honey Pot Ski Lodge, Gary Mortley of Scarborough, reported the theft of his skis and poles from the lobby of the ski lodge, Jan. 4. They were valued at $200.

Jean Vanderkooy of RR2, Gormley, told police that her $90 skis were taken from the "ski hole" at Uplands Golf and Country Club in Thornhill, Jan. 8.

Steelcase Rd. popular

Thieves were busy on Steelcase Rd., in Markham, last week, with four break-ins and three thefts reported.

Hit in order of address were: Penguin Books of Canada Ltd., No. 41, $87; Gage Envelope Ltd., No. 65, $61; James A. Cook, Davis Printing Ltd., No. 96, $91; Stewart Group of Companies, No. 259, amount taken, if any, unknown.

Two Maple men were arrested and charged in connection with a series of break-ins in Maple and Concord, from Nov. 29 to Dec. 30.

The thefts, which included cash and Wintario tickets, and more than $2,300 in damage, occurred at Maple Arena, Corner Store and Cadillac Building Products, all on Keele St. in Maple, and Hudson Kitchen, Keele St. Concord.

Charged with four counts of break, enter and theft, was William Munro, 19, of Keele St., Maple. Patrick Noble, 19, also of Keele St., was charged with possession under $200.

Also noted

Other area break-ins reported included the following: a store at 136 Woodbridge Ave., Woodbridge, owned by John Bragg of Nobleton, $250 in damage; Gundula Barescher, Dearbourne Ave., King City, $2,500 in household and personal articles from his home;

Train collision fatal

It's hard to tell which is the front end and which is the back of this truck, which was smacked broadside by a CNR freight train at the Centre St. — Newkirk Rd. crossing, Jan. 8, about 2:30 p.m., and was left a crumpled mess. Aldo Cristofoli, 35, of 265 Derry Down Dr., Downsview, driver of the truck, was killed. Police said a warning signal at the crossing was in effect at the time of the accident.
