

Twist of fate

OAK RIDGES — An Oak Ridges man, who had been taken home by police after being charged with impaired driving, was killed later in the day after being struck by a motorist.

The motorist was also charged with impaired driving.

Killed was Heinz Lederich, 51, of Douglas Rd.

Police said Lederich was struck by a south-bound car driven by Norman Darrach, 21 of King Township.

He was walking along Yonge St., just south of King Rd. The accident took place about 3 a.m. Jan. 13.

According to the OPP at Oak Ridges, Lederich was driven home by a policeman after being released from custody on his promise to appear in court on the impaired driving charge.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Marshall Funeral Home, followed by burial in Richmond Hill Cemetery.

Charged in theft

MARKHAM — A Markham warehouse was emptied of $3,660 in truck tires last week in a late-evening heist. But not for long.

Police arrived on the scene just as two men were taking the tires to the loading area.

Charged with break and enter with intent from Service Tire Corp., Highway 48, were Ernest Craig, 32, of Scarborough and Raymond Baxter, 29, of RR 1, Milliken.

Not so fortunate was Satellite Automotive, down the road, which lost $2,000 in automobile parts in a break-in.

Frank Jones, Blencarthon Hill, was also visited by thieves last week. They took an estimated $6,200 in items from his home.

In Richmond Hill, Kenneth Walker, Muirhead Cres., lost $435 in valuables to thieves.

Bomb scare
The bomb scarers are getting younger all the time.

The latest to be arrested by police was a 13-year-old Thornhill youth. Someone called Baythorn Public School last week and told the secretary to "get the kids out," as there was a bomb planted in a locker.

No bomb was found, but the caller was caught and charged with making threatening phone calls.

Vandals, too
An estimated $3,000 damage was done at a construction site at Milne Conservation Area, when someone went wild with a front-end loader.
