In this game every member of the team played very well and demonstrated their superiority in every department. They started

Hill coaches reprimanded

By Tom Graham RICHMOND HILL — It would seem in the greater Richmond Hill area that we have far more top grade coaches than we were aware of.

The Level II Canadian Amateur Coach's Clinic held at the Richmond Hill Arena saw only 19 participants participating with close to 50 per cent of that number from out of our area.

This was an upgrade clinic that covered a multitude of subjects intended to upgrade minor hockey coaches and, in turn, their players.

It would seem that many of our house league and OMHA coaches already know it all and have no use for further help to improve their skills.

This clinic was brought to Richmond Hill at great expense and the opportunity was here for anybody to attend and would also have been a good spot for many of our more critical parents to better understand what is going on.

The waiting that quite often goes on in the stands might have been helped considerably by the instructors at this clinic.

Scotia ties, wins

The Richmond Hill Scotia Bank Minor Peeewe's tied 4-4 Sunday with Schomberg after walloping the same team by 9-0 Friday.

The win was a real team effort with every player accounting for either a goal or an assist. Robin Wilkinson gave his all in the net and came up with a well-earned shutout.

Sunday's tie saw Richmond Hill goals by David

Wright, Robert Strang, two, and Steven Moro. Assists went to Chris Steffan and Wright. Goaltending for this game was shared by Glen Stother and Robin Wilkinson.

Hill's Rick Girard with assist to Pete Kendall.

Newmarket tied the game early in the second but Arkay blew the match wide open with four unanswered goals leading 5-1 going into the third.

Richmond Hill scorers were Zenio Ferrone, Dave Forster, Doug Lewis and Roy Russel. Assists to Ron Abernathy, Dave Earl, Russel, Girard, John Peden, Pete

Kendall, Steve Bishop and Dave Forster. The Barrie game, despite the score, was a wide open match with both teams having numerous opportunities to score.

Coaching turn-out is disappointing

By Bob Reeves

RICHMOND HILL — For some weeks preparations have been under way for last Sunday's Level Two Coaches' Clinic conducted by the CAHA and sponsored by the Richmond Hill Hockey Association.

I was fortunate to be present for much of the classroom presentations by the various instructors and part of the practical work on the ice.

I was impressed with the professional and academic approaches taken by all the CAHA members along with their very evident enthusiasm and enjoyment of their work.

The topics covered by them are far too numerous to mention here—they covered eight hours—with a break for lunch. But the content of the topics, the depth and the logic has to be seen to believe. They were really excellent.

Only 19 there There were 19 people in attendance at the meeting, each one of whom came to improve his knowledge of the game and how to communicate this knowledge

hill minor hockey

into learning for the players.

Many of these coaches came from other associations. Only four or five of ours came and for me, this was a bitter disappointment.

I will not mention names here but thank you to those from Richmond Hill who did attend and many thanks to one of our ex-members who, not only registered himself, but also registered his two sons.

In fairness to everyone, some of our coaches have level two. Others were out of town with game commitments. But there are a great many who didn't register at all and would have benefitted greatly from the experience.

Bitter experience There was lots of publicity, lots of time to prepare in advance for last Sunday. It was indeed a bitter experience. Elsewhere in this paper, Tom Graham has written his feelings about Sunday—I haven't read them at this time—but I sure do endorse them.

You may be very certain that we shall conduct both Level one and two clinics again and we can only hope for a greater turnout at these future sessions.

Las Vegas And we are off to Las Vegas again! I am certain everyone remembers the Las Vegas draw of last year and the great fun that was had in doing it.

The general format will be the same but some of the activities involved in both the promotion and the draw itself may be different. You'll be hearing lots more about this in the weeks to come.

Playoffs February 1 will see the start of the OMHA playoffs for our town rep teams. As a result ice times for the various teams can change a great deal.

As I have said before this is the time when your support is really needed. The schedule will be made public as soon as we have them. Make a point of coming to these games and support the teams.
