Films at library Saturday morning

THORNHILL - The Richvale Library, 54 Pearson Avenue, will show films Saturday morning, January 29, 1977, from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Films will be exciting, animated or slapstick! Always fun, always free!

Best sellers and other new books are arriving weekly. If the library does not have the book you would like, in most cases, they can get it for you through Inter-Library loan. Come in and browse, and ask for the new library brochure.

Church women party

THORNHILL - St. Luke's Roman Catholic parish women will hold a "Beat the Blues" dessert and card party, Jan. 26 at 8 p.m. at the church hall, 39 Green Lane. Tickets are $2. There will be door prizes and terrific raffle prizes. For more information call 889-7895.

New Family Law

DOWNSVIEW - Discussion of the new Family Law Reform will form the basis of the first session to be covered in the Law and You program offered in January by York University's Centre for Continuing Education. The program is offered in co-operation with the Canadian Civil Liberties Association.

Other topics for discussion will be Income Tax Law, Real Estate Law and Wills.

The program is designed to help individuals and citizens' groups to become more familiar with the Canadian legal system and the implications of the law with regard to their daily
