

Guard one of five arrested for theft

RICHMOND HILL — York Regional Police last week made five arrests in connection with various thefts in the Richmond Hill and Thornhill areas during the past six months.

In Richmond Hill William and Violet Seffernik, both 21, of Carrville Rd., Thornhill, were charged in connection with thefts from K-Mart Stores in Hillcrest Mall.

Police said the thefts went back to last summer.

William Seffernik, a security guard at K-Mart, was charged with theft over $200. Violet Seffernik was charged with possession over $200.

Thornhill thefts
In Thornhill, a series of thefts from homes of cash and goods, which went as high as $5,500 at one place, resulted in the arrest of two men.

Nicolas Flocco, 21, of Garden Ave., Richmond Hill, faces charges of break, enter and theft, and forging and uttering.

A second man, who was not named, is to be charged with two counts of break, enter and theft.

Police said that the thefts and other incidents occurred between Sept. 24 and Jan. 19.

Markham break-ins
In another arrest that covers a series of thefts between Nov. 1975 and Dec. 1976, Bruce Rankine, 28 of Bond Head, Ont., was arrested.

Rankine was charged with seven counts of break, enter and theft, and one of break and enter with intent. Five of the break-ins occurred in Thornhill and three in Markham.

Cache box
Theft reports in Thornhill were aplenty last week.

Despite the fact his cash was hidden in a small box in the basement of his home, someone managed to walk away with all $3,800 of it, Bryan Ronka, Sussex Ave., told police.

He said the money was all in $100 bills.

$3,112 theft
In another big theft, Thomson Moving and Storage, Maple Ave., lost $3,112, plus two personal cheques for $225.57 from thieves who cracked a safe on the premises.

Sandra Doran, Porterfield Cres., reported the theft of a portable washer and dryer, two air conditioners, a tool box and a chandelier from her garage.

Maurizia Vradis, Clark Ave., told police some furniture and a large quantity of clothing valued at $1,000, were taken from her basement.

Guitar stolen
A $1,700 guitar, serial number 333514, valued at $1,700, was taken from a display case at the Music Shoppe, Yonge St.

One of the unkindest cuts of the snow-heavy season was reported by Armand Zeimet, Lady Stephen Court.

He reported the theft of a snow blower, plus lawn mower, from his garage.

Also noted
Mrs. Reggie Knoessel, King Cross Dr., King Township, told police two color TV sets, plus personal and household items, valued at $2,000, were taken from her home.

Anne Calverley, 100 Markham Rd., Richmond Hill, also lost a TV set, three coats and two radios to thieves.

At Don Mills Steel, Con. 4, Markham, a break and entry netted thieves $1,200 in cash and a small calculator.
