Minor hockey on TV tube

By Bob Reeves
RICHMOND HILL — Last Thursday evening the Richmond Hill Hockey Association began the first in a regular series of television programs on Channel 10.
The purpose, of course, is to keep everyone informed of happenings in the world of minor hockey, various coming events and, from time to time, on-ice action will be featured.
I hope that anyone who cares will make a point of watching these broadcasts on Thursday nights.
Adverse reaction
I understand there has been some adverse reaction to various statements made in "The Liberal" last week about the poor attendance at the Level Two Coaches' Clinic which was held 10 days ago.
My apologies to anyone whose feelings were injured but I still feel the same bitter disappointment regarding the poor turnout at this most worthwhile session.
As I pointed out last week we will be doing it again in the future and I am looking forward to a much larger group attending.
Very rewarding
At the risk of being repetitious, the aim of the clinic is to provide coaches with a better background in both on- and off-ice procedures for teaching the kids. I found it most rewarding and once again many thanks to the organizers.
Ooops
I also must apologize to that member of our association who brought his two boys to the clinic. Last week's column referred to him as being an ex member which, of course, is a total error.
Geoff Hayward is a most active member of the association and the board of directors and his services to minor hockey are highly valued. It was

hill minor hockey

The odds then are really good for your winning one of the prizes. Needless to say, I'll be plugging the draw more and more in the weeks to come.
First aid
Last Sunday morning a full meeting of the A and second team coaches and managers took place at the arena. One of the major areas carried was first aid to injured players.
As you probably remember we are well blessed with the services of two of the finest trainers in the business, namely Jack Williams and Bill Chatwell.
Both men re-inforced major items in the treatment of injured players, a most worthwhile and beneficial session.
Other items on the agenda involved general beefs and complaints about team operations in general. These sessions, of course, are really worthwhile, in that it gives everyone a chance to get things out in the open and off everyone's either a slip of the pen or a type-setting error.

Las Vegas
In the next short period of time we are going to give someone out there a chance to win a trip to Las Vegas all expenses paid. You will, I am sure, recall that we conducted this draw last year and it was a lot of fun and a big success.
The draw was made on Channel 10 and it really was a great evening. This year the draw will be made April 1 at a dance at the Legion—April Fool's Day—and we are certainly hoping for a big turnout.
Cash prizes
Incidentally, there will be several cash prizes included along with the trip so save the price of a ticket—they are only 10 dollars with a total of 1000 sold.
