

Hockey players must leave wallets home

RICHMOND HILL — Leave your wallets at home, would seem to be a good warning to hockey players, plus anybody else who plans to use the changeroom at a rink, school or community centre.

Police reported 11 different thefts from area locker rooms, including three from Richmond Hill Arena and one from Thornhill Community Centre. The thief all but left police his name. In the Thornhill case, a wallet containing $57 and two tickets for Maple Leaf Gardens for the evening of Feb. 1, was taken from a changeroom at the Centre, Jan. 21.

Man arrested

On Feb. 1, police attended the Gardens and found a man occupying one of the seats designated in the stolen tickets.

He was arrested and a subsequent search of his home turned up the missing wallet, police said.

Gets message

WOODBRIDGE — It's not enough that people use the telephone to make threats, they now have the advantage of recording their happy messages.

According to police, one of the messages left for Humber Valley Real Estate, Islington Ave., on its recording device, Feb. 6, was a bomb threat. The threat proved to be false.

Arrested was Michael Hetherington, 18, of Deaconwood Rd., Thornhill.

One of the wallets was later recovered, but the cash was missing.

At Aurora Too

In Aurora, four hockey players from St. Andrew's College, had their wallets taken from a dressing room at the community centre.

Double Rink Arena in Concord was also popular with thieves, who hit a locker room and two cars.

Taken from the former was a wallet containing $200, belonging to Horst Seawald, Islington.

Car victims are A.C. Simonds and Son Ltd., who lost two, two-way radios valued at $1,300, and David Douglas, Rexdale, who was robbed of a tape deck and a wallet.

Woodbridge arrest

At Woodbridge High School, a youth was arrested in connection with the theft of money and attempted theft from a change room.

Charged with theft under $200 and attempted theft, is John Simone, 17, of Humber Dr.

About $200 damage was done to Thornhill Community Centre, where two mirrors and a fire extinguisher door were broken.
