

Hill curlers put Claw to lobsters

Barth champs

They're smiling because they've been throwing rocks and throwing them pretty good. Winners of the Richmond Hill

RICHMOND HILL — The second annual Past President's Lobster dinner was held last Sunday and thanks to Elgin Barrow, Warren Davey, Don Richards, Bill McLeod, Walt Lavender, John Anderson, Bill Kirkpatrick, Don Brayshaw and their wives, it was a great meal.

A friendly mixed-up six end game of curling preceded the dinner with skips Len Lee, Jack Shropshire, Herb Thrompston, Orton Beaumont, Jack Vernon, and Alex Alexson leading the green rocks to victory.

Men's competitive
The Men's Competitive League completed its second schedule Monday night and top honors in B flight go to Len Lee and his publicity-seeking rink of Rick Johnson, Jim Lane, and Mike Mulcahy.

One member of this successful rink feels that local publicity is not enough and wonders if Metro papers are interested.

Other top skips are Jim Creighton and Paul Welsh in A flight, President Len in B and Walt Lavender in C flight.

Mixed league
The mixed league continued its play last Friday night with rinks skipped by Tom Hardcastle, Jack Shropshire and Dave Richards leading their groups.

One interesting game had Thrompston and his rink of wife Monica, Cliff and Ann Webb curling a great game with two six ends and leading by 13 points coming home with last rock.

This was against a rink of four rated skips who shall remain anonymous.

Gerry Morlock with wife Gina as vice, along with Bill and Brigitte Oliver, curled at Bradford in the Dol Brothers Bluegrass Spiel a few weeks ago.

In previous years this strong rink has won the second and third event and this year was aiming for the main event trophy. They did reach the finals but lost a close game.

In a leads and seconds spiel at the Toronto Cricket recently, Chris Colkay and her rink of Rick Alexson, Barb Grimshaw and Mary Deane won the E.M. Orr trophy.

At Barrie
At the Barrie Golf and Country Club in the Trillium Spiel, Laura Watson was the two-game high winner with her rink of Helen Awde, Peggy McPherson and Marg Baillie.

At our club, Jean

Coneybear won the Barth Trophy with her rink of Betty Kerr, June Beaumont and Bert Vernon.

Challenge Last Sunday the Business Girls and the Day Ladies challenged each other and after totalling all sheets after eight ends the Business Girls were the winners and hosted the Ladies to a luncheon

Magna midgets win final two matches

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Midget Second Team, Magna Midgets, finished out their regular season play over the weekend with wins over Thornhill and Newmarket.

They ended with 13 wins, five losses and two ties. This will give them first place in the unofficial standings of their division of the York Simcoe league.

Saturday's game against Thornhill was a squeaker with the game getting real rough in the later stages of the third period. Magna hung on for a 4-3 win. The locals were led offensively by Mark Gossman who had the hat trick. The other Richmond Hill goal went to Dennis Reid. Assists went to Gary Gentry, Doug Anderson and Dan Moore.

Nip Newmarket
Magna travelled to Newmarket Sunday without five of their regulars. The short handed team had trouble getting going but came on strong in the third to win 3-2.

They scored first only to have Newmarket tie the game by the end of the first.

The opposition went ahead 2-1 in the second and held this lead until part way through the third. Magna then took charge of the game to bring up with the win. Brian Casey played a strong game in goal for Magna especially early when the team seemed to be disorganized.

Scoring for Richmond Hill were Gary Gentry, Jim Wood and Dan Moore. All goals were unassisted.

Magna is now idle for the next two weeks while their opposition is being decided.

Realty boys lost first 2

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Black and Stewart Realty Minor Midgets have their backs to the wall in their OMHA playdown series with Orillia.

The realty boys dropped 2-1 and 5-2 games to Orillia in their best-of-three series. The series resumes tomorrow (Thursday) in Orillia.

Orillia 2, Richmond Hill 1. A tough one to lose with goalie Rick Warrens coming up with excellent goaltending. Orillia pulled ahead with two quick goals in the first period but was held scoreless after that.

Richmond Hill's goal was scored by Jeff Joslin from Rod Graham, and Gary Bubeloff hit the goalpost in the last minute of the game.

Orillia 5, Richmond Hill 2. Orillia opened the scoring but Richmond Hill tied it on a goal Joel Reeves assisted by Jack Vantol and Rick Gerber. Goalie Ted Inch came up with a real effort.

Orillia pulled ahead to win with Richmond Hill's second goal by Joslin from Gody Graham and Jim Majury.

Jewellers tie Barrie and defeat Midland

In Midland

Friday's encounter in Midland was a close one until that eruptive final 20 minutes.

Midland led 1-0 on Larry Fallon's first period goal but Dynes came back in the second on goals by Reston, Sherman, Roffey, and Irwin. Midland replied courtesy of John Beauchamp, Neil Parker, two, and Paul Robillard.

It was game over in the third.

Scoring for Dynes:

Mike Carnevale, Dale Roffey, Boyd Young, Dale Roffey, Reston, Young and Robinson. Game over.
