Wrigley champs at Hill

By Bob Reeves

RICHMOND HILL — There are not too many hockey fans around that are unaware of the great success of the Don Mills Flyers in winning the Canadian championship at the Wrigley Tournament two weeks ago.

Who can forget that third period against a very fine Quebec team? It was a dandy.

As you know, their team is off to the U.S.S.R. and Czechoslovakia March 15. They will certainly be a fine representative team for Canada.

This coming Sunday

Don Mills will be here in Richmond Hill playing our Branch 375 Midgets in an exhibition game at 1 p.m.

Don Mills Flyers This will be the first game for the Flyers since returning from Moncton and it will be well worth watching. Tickets for the game will be $1 and for that game only, all passes will be suspended.

We are going to split the gate with the Flyers in order to assist them in raising funds for their European venture. So let's pack the arena for this game.

There will be a pre-sale of tickets during the week and they will be available Sunday at the box office. Let's fill the place.

Incidentally, Don Booth, the coach of Don Mills is an ex-Richmond Hill resident. Let's give him a great welcome with great attendance.

Over the last three weeks we have been taping programs on Channel 10 for viewing on Thursdays and Saturdays. The purpose of these is to keep you better informed about the operations of the Richmond Hill Hockey Association and coming events.

We hope that you will make a point of following your chances of winning are quite good.

Needless to say we need the proceeds to keep our heads above water so please don't say no when you are approached to buy one.

The draw will take place at the Royal Canadian Legion and there will be more news of this in the weeks to come.

Playoffs are well under way this week and it's a very busy time for our two teams.

Some are facing back-to-back games away so there is and will be considerable travelling and some bleary eyes the next morning.

I certainly wish each and everyone of them the best of luck and, win or lose, we are proud of them all.

Quebec ho This week also sees our Cadillac Baif Peewees off to Quebec for the Winter Carnival. To Bruce Mackenzie, Bill Wolfson, Mark Edwards, the players and the parents, Bon Chance, Happy Hockey and enjoy Helen's.

By the way the same peewees eliminated Newmarket in the playoffs in two straight games. Keep up the good work in Orillia and Quebec.
