

Port Perry winners Oak Ridges tourney

OAK RIDGES — Port Perry edged Keswick 7-6 in overtime to win the first annual Oak Ridges Minor Hockey Bantam Invitational last Saturday.

The host Oak Ridges team not only didn't win it, they didn't even get to compete due to league obligations.

The first round of the tournament saw Richvale Royals winning by default over Thornhill Thunderbirds; Port Perry Beare Motors dumped Cobourg Wholesalers 5-4; Barrie Griffin Farm Equipment defeated Bowmanville MacGregor IDA, 4-0.

Keswick Flyers won over the East Ottawa Bruins 3-2. The championship semi finals saw Port Perry defeating Richvale 4-2; and Keswick blanking Barrie 3-0.

The consolation semi-finals saw Cobourg defeating Thornhill 5-2 and East Ottawa Bruins blasting Bowmanville 7-1.

The championship game saw Port Perry's Darrin Jobb, George Burnett and Doug Potts scoring twice each and David Alexander once.

Pott's goal was the game winner in overtime. Keswick scorers were Randy Flicker and Mike Sedore with two goals each and singles went to Jeff Evans and Mike Collins.

East Ottawa Bruins won the consolation championship with a 5-0 win over Cobourg.

Unfortunately because of OMHA playoff commitments, Thornhill had to default its first game of the tournament.

Sweep, ladies

It just wasn't a good day for Thornhill sweepers at the annual Thornhill Curling Club Sunflake Bonspiel last week.

Just ask Betty Morrison of Willowdale and Helen Perry of Arnold Ave. Big winner was Eloise Monteith of Lambton.

Another big 'eight'

By Ron Taylor
RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Curling Club registered its second eight ender of the season last Thursday evening in the Men's draw.

Jim Anderson was curling on sheet 2 against Bob Taylor in the second end when the dream end suddenly developed.

Bob drew his first rock into the house against six of Jim's but Jim removed it on his first shot. Bob's second shot was a shade heavy giving Jim an open house and a draw for eight.

Jim came up with the shot giving him the magic eight. Curling with Jim were Bill Thoms, Bev McGachen and Peter Nye. Bob's rink consisted of Jack Hughes, Tom Harcastle and Murray Watson.

Ladies skip
The Ladies skip entry completed its latest schedule with Jean

McLeod and her rink of Pat Thompson, Gina Morlock and Barbara Grimshaw winning the A flight.

Marcella Bird and her rink of Marilyn Howard, Helen Glover and Genie Greenham won the B division. Dave and Oliver Pulchinski travelled to Cochrane recently with Orton and June Beaumont for the annual Winter Carnival Spiel.

Normally, Olive reports on their success but all we have to go on is the fact that Dave is now using a new curling bag.

He must have won something, or found it.

Rumney qualifies
Jack Rumney qualified for the Saturday finals at Unionville last week with his rink of Dalt Hicks, Paul Welsch and Tab McDonald.

With three games remaining in the Mixed League, Walt Lavender with one loss, leads his group, Gerry Morlock with only two losses leads the second group while Dave Pulchinski is leading his group with only one loss.

John Scott and his rink have lost his last five games having won his first five. Practice John.

It was brought to our attention by three of the members of the winning A flight rink on Monday nights that their names are never mentioned.

Now that they lost their first game in the new schedule the rink is made up of Dalt Hicks, Bill MacLeod, Warren Davey and Larry Schell.

The Business Girls took over this Saturday with their annual Invitational Canadiana and the very famous Sinners Brier will be on the following Saturday.

Don't forget the Shillelagh in three weeks.

Tournaments Bantams ousted

RICHMOND HILL — The Richmond Hill Tournaments Inc. Minor Bantams ran into a blind switch losing 4-2, 4-0 and 3-1 to Barrie and bowing out of the OMHA playdowns.

Tournaments had gotten into the series by disposing of Newmarket two games to none.

The second game of that series was played in Newmarket and was Tournament's first overtime game of the year. After playing poorly most of the way, Richmond Hill came to win 4-3 in the extra period.

Start strongly
Barrie 4, Richmond Hill 2. Richmond Hill started strongly building up a 2-0 lead but couldn't hold it.

Richmond Hill received a strong effort from all players with goals going to J. P. Farrell and Paul Harrietha.

Lose Harrietha
The biggest loss was Harrietha who was injured late in the game. He'll be out for three weeks with an injured knee and thumb.

Barrie dominated the second game winning 4-0 and then ousted Richmond Hill in the final game.

This was the best contest of the series as Richmond Hill came from behind an early 1-0 deficit to tie the game on Farrell's goal from Cleve Jones.

Richmond Hill couldn't get the winner with Barrie finally ending the contest with a screened shot late in the overtime period.

Coach proud
Coach Jim Cade said he was "very proud of his players for the fine showing they put on under such adverse conditions". Doug Macklin played an excellent game in goal.

Richmond Hill begins its league playoffs next Sunday against Newmarket in Newmarket.
