

These shoppers don't pay any more, anymore.

They've discovered they can cut their food costs by shopping Dominion's low overall everyday prices. Sure there are specials at other food chains. But they're not so special when you're probably paying more for all the other things you need. At Dominion you get low overall everyday prices on all your needs, plus weekly specials on the most popular items. These shoppers have found they can save dollars every week. And it's likely you can too.
