150 participate in film day at library

The third Annual Film Festival sponsored by the Richmond Hill Public Library Audio Visual Department was held recently in the Main Library on Wright Street.

One hundred and fifty participants from libraries, Social Service Agencies, hospitals and other institutions in York Region and Metro Toronto accepted an invitation to participate in a day of film previewing with material selected particularly to assist them in their professional fields.

The event was planned and co-ordinated by Suzanne Buxton, Head of AV services in the Richmond Hill Library, with the assistance of Lorna Ziolkowska, Mary Finkbeiner and Jo Darlington of the AV staff.

An invitation has been extended to Miss Buxton to conduct a similar Film Workshop during the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Ontario Association of Marriage and Family Counsellors to be held in Ottawa in May.

World Red Cross Day

May 8, 1977 is World Red Cross Day. It honours the birth of Henry Dunant, the founder of the Red Cross. This year's slogan is "PEACE THROUGH PEOPLE. It reminds us that peace among people begins with the individual. As people help each other through working together, a climate of understanding is fostered in which both individuals and nations can find peace."
