OAK RIDGES — All the men of the senior citizen's club, The Wheelhouse, are busy making sure their aim is straight and true, and all the Lions are busy sharpening up the eagle eye.

The occasion for such preparation is the annual dart tournament between the seniors and the Lions that will take place tomorrow (Thursday) at the Wheelhouse at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come and observe and cheer for the team of their choice.

Last year, the seniors took home the trophy. This year the Lions are determined to be the victors, but the seniors are just as determined to hold onto the glory.

Public speaking

The Oak Ridges Lions are entering a boy and a girl in the Lions Public Speaking Contest to be held tonight in Claremont.

The two area contestants both are students at Oak Ridges Public School.

They are Jeff Mitchell and Carmen Keyink.

Seniors news

For those of you who get the paper early enough, there is an afternoon euchre at the Wheelhouse this afternoon. The admission is 25 cents per person and the playing starts at 1:30.

The members of the Wheelhouse are saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. G. Hagen of Aubrey Ave. in Oak Ridges. Mr. Hagen passed away last Wednesday. The members of the club extend their sympathy to Mrs. Hagen.

St. Paul's United

The Junior Young People will be having a coffee house this Friday at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's. There will be a movie called 'Barett' all about a cop who really cared. There is no admission to the coffee house, and all are welcome.

It really isn't spring clean up time yet, but St. Paul's needs some items that you may just happen to have. They are old Christmas cards (for use at York Manor), stamps with 1/4 to 1/2 inch borders (for use by the leprosy missions), and Dominion Store tapes (for use by York Presbytery). If you have any of the above to donate, please call Mrs. Jean Anderson at 773-5152.

St. Paul's hockey team, God Squad, will play Newmarket Gospel Hall at the Richmond Hill Arena on March 4 at 10 p.m. All fans are urged to come out and support the team.

St. John's Anglican

The ladies of the ACW will be attending the World Day of Prayer to be held this year at St. Paul's United Church in Oak Ridges. There will be babysitting for the youngsters.

Sunday will be family service at 10:30 preceded by a hymn sing at 10:15. A group of Young Adults from the Montreal area called Youth With a Mission, under the direction of Gloria Black, will be presenting several dramatic mimes.

On Tuesday, Rev. Gerber will be travelling to the Church of Christ The King in Etobicoke to present an audio-visual called 'The God Who Speaks Through Nature' to the ACW.
