Twenty-Four Hours of Night Life

means "getting away from it all" for a time of sheer, delightful escapism, Las Vegas is the place to go. It not only lives up to its reputation - it exceeds it!

Not surprisingly, the city has become a magnet for conventions. The Convention Center was opened in 1959, to handle this business. Las Vegas started out as a railroad town in 1905 - it was a division point on the Union Pacific - and has grown to be the largest city in Nevada.

Las Vegas is a town that not only caters to every taste in vacation fun, but gives you ideas of doing things you never realized you wanted to do! There are two glittering fun areas: Fremont Street downtown and the famous "Strip" just outside the city. The 3 1/2 mile long "Strip" is jammed every foot of the way with epicurean delights (and we're not just talking about food!) If your idea of a vacation
