Bridge

Canadian tourney for local club

OAK RIDGES — For many years, a growing number of bridge players across Canada have agitated for a truly Canadian National Championship. The Canadian Bridge Federation is now responding to that demand by conducting the 1977 Canadian Team Championships, beginning at the club level.

The success of this tournament will determine the future direction of bridge in Canada. Plans are underway for future novice, open, and individual Championships as well. These are expected to become the most important and prestigious events in Canada.

Get your teams lined up and plan to attend on March 20, at the Aurora Bridge Club, 12 King Sideroad, Oak Ridges. Sessions begin at noon and will cost $32.00 per four man team.

RESULTS
Feb. 25 — North-South — 1. Ruth and Gerry Browning, 2. J. Coats and Ann Manning, 3. Victor Cronshaw and Peter Osborne.

East-West — 1. Lorie and Joe Coen, 2. Bob and Betty Hull, 3. Bob and Edna Dunn.

Art contest in Thornhill

THORNHILL — The Lions Club is sponsoring an art contest on the theme of old Thornhill. Young people, aged 21 and under, are eligible to enter the contest for $100 prize to be part of the Old Thornhill Festival Sept. 17. The winning picture is expected to envisage a scene from the 19th century. It will be hung in the community centre and the Gallanough Library for one year. Bill Trow, president of the Society to Preserve Historic Thornhill, says the organizers hope to have all the community groups in Thornhill take part in the festival. They are endeavoring to have Yonge Street and Highway 7B closed off for certain activities.

New display opens at Gibson House

WILLOWDALE — The Upper Gallery of Gibson House is the site of "And So to Bed" display opening this week at 5172 Yonge St. The display by the Toronto Historical Board will feature 19th century linens and toilet articles. Gibson House is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays noon to 5 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children and senior citizens.
