Waldorf school opens its doors

A $6.50 Canadiana Buffet, prepared by parents, will be the first event in the Toronto Waldorf School's Open House Friday. Reservations can be made by calling 881-1611.

The Open House, held Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. will feature a display of children's work and a slide show of class activities.

'History through the grades' will begin with the stories of mythologies from Greek to Roman times, including the biographies of some of the great men who helped shape the world. Teachers will be on hand to explain the Waldorf approach to child education.

The school, with over 280 children, is in a unique building in a wooded area on Bathurst Street, about a mile north of Highway 7.

Deal me in!

Tuesday May 10 at 8 p.m. the York Centre for Learning Disabilities will hold its annual public meeting.

To take place at the Centre on the top floor of Richmond Hill United Church education wing, the evening will feature an appearance by Marjorie Golick.

This senior psychologist and author will give a presentation on learning games for children entitled 'Deal me in'.

For more information, contact Livinia Whetung at 884-6534.

YCH auxiliary meets

The East Central Branch of York Central Hospital Auxiliary will meet May 10 at the home of Mrs. Doug Hitchins, 116 Harding Boulevard, Richmond Hill.

For more information on the 8 p.m. get-together, contact Mary Hitchins at 884-3734.

Richvale plant sale

The Richvale Lions Drum Corps will hold a Mother's Day Plant Sale Saturday and Sunday. The 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. event will feature all kinds of houseplants. The location is the Borovoy Plaza.

For more information, call Pat Rivait at 889-4145.

You a single parent?

Are you a harried single parent? The Richmond Hill-Thornhill Chapter of the One Parent Families Association of Canada will be having a general meeting next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

All members, guests and interested single parents are welcome to attend. The location will be the Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church, Yonge Street and Markham Road.

This Saturday, the association dance will be held at the Thornhill Community Centre, starting at 8:30 p.m.

The centre is at Bayview and John Streets in Thornhill. Admission ($3 for members, $5 for guests) includes a disc jockey and buffet.

Baked beans anyone?

Baked Beans anyone? This old fashioned two burner natural gas range has been "spruced up" for the "Centennial Cuisine" to occur May 5 at The Consumers' Gas Building, 500 Elgin Mills Road East, Richmond Hill. Other "receipts" to be demonstrated include Roast Duckling with Sauerkraut Dressing, Beets with Dresden Sauce, Oatmeal Brown Bread, Apple Fritters, and Shoofly Pie.

Two local vocalists

These two Richmond Hill vocalists will star in a recital of solos and duets Sunday at 8:15 in St. Matthew's Church. Margaret Rummy of Centre Street (standing) — a mezzo soprano — will join Joan Plume, a coloratura soprano from McConvey Drive in singing such works as the Cat Duet, attributed to Rossini.

April extravaganza nets church $3,267

Conveners Jean Harper and Yvonne Sale says a lot of people helped make the Richmond Hill United Church's April Extravaganza an unequalled success.

After all expenses, $3,267 was raised. Special thanks are extended to the dishwashers, table-setters, willing haulers, jewelry fixers, rummage sorters, French room fans, candy weighers, bakers, speech-makers, cash counters, toy stitchers, ribbon cutters, snack servers, plant potters, clever artists, sewers and quilters, book-nookers, buyers and eaters . . .

and, of course, minister Robert Shorten.

Warm acknowledgement goes as well to Gregg Mark, Liz Shorten and Craig Stevenson for their help with the auction; Ted Sale and John Stevenson for auctioneering; Bill Barker and Ted Sale for M.C.ing; to Rosalind McLeod for singing; Joe Calverley for the choir; and Jack Simpson for the Scottish dancing.

Of the money, $1,000 will go towards the pew refurbishment fund, $2,000 to debenture retirement, and $267 to the minister's benevolent fund.

Show family life film

By Mrs. Evelyn Milsted
Mrs. Marguerite Jones, a Gormley resident, has been in hospitals or nursing homes for several years. She has a birthday on May 12.

Let us help cheer her up by sending her a birthday card. Her address is Bestview Lodge, 77 Main Street, Toronto.

A series of Family Life films will be shown at the Heise Hill Church every Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. throughout the month of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Schlieter and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doner flew to Regina, Sask. to attend the graduation exercises of the Ontario Bible College. Dean Schlieter was one of the graduates.

gormley

Wednesday with the Bayview secondary school band for a five day student exchange in Kentucky, U.S.A. The Kentucky Band will return the visit in June.

The Stouffville-Whitchurch annual Sunday School Convention will convene on Saturday, May 7 at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. at the Bloomington Gospel Church.

Mrs. Geoffrey Campey has returned after spending several weeks with relatives in England and Germany.

Rummage

T.O.P.S. the non-profit, weight-control group, will hold a bazaar and rummage sale from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 14 in Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Refreshments will be served. For further information, call 883-1368

RHHS prom is May 6

By Janet Robbins

The RHHS spring prom is coming up!

This year it's being held at the Aurora Golf and Country Club May 6. The reception is at 8 o'clock. A roast beef dinner will be served around 9. A disc jockey will entertain.

Many thanks are due to our Prom Committee — Errol Jones, Debbie Heard, Helene Paulus, Sue Lemon, Lori McDowell, Laurie Hutchinson, Shauna Parr, and Marg Shorten. Hope you all enjoy yourselves.

The lacrosse season is on and we are doing well thus far. Although we lost to Markham on April 14 by a score of 3-2 (Kevin Bryan got our goals), we beat Aurora on April 21, 12-6. Mark Wilson got three of our goals, and Craig Finkbeiner, another three.

We also beat Huron Heights 5-4. Kevin Bryan earned us 2 points, Mark Wilson, 2 and Craig Finkbeiner, 1.

The next game is Thursday against Newmarket. Try and get out to cheer them on.

Our badminton team did well this year. Although John Hanbury lost the Senior singles in the York County tournament, Mark Girdler and Julian Handbury were finalists in the Senior doubles and therefore went on to Georgian Bay on April 21.

They lost in the semifinals.

Thanks to Mr. Munro-cape for leading the team.

After doing well at York County, the following girls went on to the Georgian Bay Secondary School Association April 26: Ann McIlwaine (competing in Senior Bar and Senior Vault), Laurie Barnett (in the Senior Vault), Christine Lazenby (Intermediate Bars) and Laura Cornes (Intermediate Beam).

Our second Activity Day was held April 26. Some of the activities were: cycling, rifle-shooting, golf, hiking, gallery tours, needlepoint, ceramics, badminton and tennis. The cycling group was so big, it had to be split into two!

On Wednesday April 26, the intramural event was Junior Girls Badminton. The winners were Sandy MacMillan and Ann Carrington
