

Minor soccer teams off to U.S.

By Jane Stel
Two Richmond Hill minor soccer teams will be hitting the road Friday to compete in the Chattam Township International Soccer tournament in New Jersey, U.S.A.

Competing will be the Kinsmen Club Minor Mosquitoes and the Minor Bantam Scholastic Publication squad. The four-day trip will see them going against opposition teams such as West Virginia, Annandale, New York Long Island, Nova Scotia and New Jersey. Players Comprising the minor mosquito team are goalie Orveo Paoletti, Shaun Cooke, Robbie Stel, Ralph Seybold, Kenny Harrington, Kelly Grams, Terry Coles,

Scott Massey, Andrew Phelps, Paul McMurray, Gino Digiocchino, Ralph Campagna and John Wynn. Coach of the team is Gerry Van Essen; manager is Jane Stel. Making up the minor bantams are Heinz Losberg, Steven Smith, Pat McMurray, Ken Main, Bruce Coles, Ian Coles, Eric Ahnert, Alastair Duncan, Harry Stel, Glen Smith, Ed McNally, Jeff Briggs, Nigel Isaac, Dale Plummer, Russell Thornhill and Steve Bialskowski.

Coach of the team is Ed Kenny; manager, Ted Main. Kick off time A total of 550 boys and girls will be registered for the minor soccer season by kick off time.

The schedule of the teams is now under way and all registered players should be receiving word from their respective coaches in the very near future.

If no word has been received by the end of May, contact your convener.

The schedule from Monday through Thursday goes as follows:

Monday nights at Bayview Secondary School, Peeewe's born in 1963-1964. Convener, Art Anderson 884-5319.

Tuesday nights at Crosby School, Squirts born in 1969-70-71. Convener is Darwin Gonzales 884-0986.

Wednesday nights at Bayview Secondary and Don Head Secondary, Atoms, born in 1967-68. Convener, John Wynn 884-5334.

Thursday nights at Bayview Secondary, Mosquitoes born in 1965-66. Convener is Tony Lott 884-2451.

All house league games will start the week beginning June 6.

Coaches needed Anyone having a spare evening and who would like to coach a team should call Gerry Van Essen at 889-4302, as we're still in need of coaches.

Soccer-a-thon The Richmond Hill Minor Soccer Association will hold a "Soccer-a-thon" June 18 at Don Head Secondary School with proceeds split 50-50 with York Central Hospital and our Richmond Hill Development Fund.

Sponsor sheets have been printed and will be available through the coaches. Hopefully all players will participate in the fun day for young and old. And remember prizes are awarded to the boys or girls who raise the most money.

Note of interest The Richmond Hill Minor Soccer Association won first prize in the recent Richvale Lions Parade for the best float. Thanks to the boys and parents who participated on that cold, windy Saturday.

Seeing that I, Jane Stel, will be with the teams in New Jersey, I won't be able to reach the publishing deadline with "The Liberal" for next week. I'll publish the upcoming league schedule now as follows:

Squirts: June 7 at Crosby School, Invictas vs Ratcliff's, Deal Services vs Legion Branch 375; Caesar Palace vs Cadillac Baif.

Atoms: June 8 at Bayview Secondary, Thornhill Village Pizza vs Richmond Hill Lions; Sanderson Gulf vs Jakma Construction and at Don Head Secondary, 76'ers vs Globe Travel.

Mosquitoes: June 9 at Bayview Secondary, Baymar Sports vs Midas Muffler; Dondeb Construction vs Tournaments Inc., and Continental Kitchens have a bye.

Peeewe's: June 13 at Bayview Secondary, Flair Upholstery vs Richmond United; North York Trophies vs Peter's Excavating.

All games will kick off at 7 p.m. and please do not litter the fields.

Just like a seal

Richmond Hill Scholastic Publications' player Patrick McMurray looks like he's trying a balancing act ala the seals in this exhibition minor soccer game with Thornhill. On the right (in dark jersey) is Thornhill's Donald Mummery trying to regain his composure. Both teams are in the new Inter-District Soccer League. Thornhill won 3-2.

Dairy Queen boys ready!

The 1977 version of the Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirt Town Representative softball team head into their regular season of play in the Etobicoke Softball Association this week.

The team sports an exhibition record of one win and three losses, following a split of games last week.

On May 16 the Dairy Queen boys hosted Bridlewood and found themselves locked in a real pitcher's duel, which saw the Hill squad eventually winning by a score of 2-1.

Kevin McInnis was superb on the mound for Richmond Hill as he hurled a neat five hitter and struck out 14 batters.

Kevin also made several good fielding plays while Cesidio Negri caught a strong game behind the plate.

Offensively, the Hill

boys could muster only four hits themselves, with the winning run coming in the sixth as Glen Harding raced home on a passed ball.

Lose to East Gwillimbury

On May 19 the Dairy Queen squad travelled to East Gwillimbury, only to lose by a score of 9-3.

Although they were only out-hit 9-8, the Hillers left too many men stranded on base, which accounts for the lopsided score.

Leading the hitting attack was Kevin McInnis with three singles, while Tim Lawlor and Ritchie Peirce also swung the bat well.

Joe Apps toed the rubber for Richmond Hill and recorded eight strikeouts and five walks to go along with the nine hits he surrendered.

Wayne Murphy played a strong game at third base while Dave Redpath made nice catch in centrefield.

This was by far the best game the team has played to date.

Bombed Twice

May 7 saw the Hill boys dropping both ends of a doubleheader to a tremendous Galt team by the scores of 28-3 and 42-3.

Not much can be said about these games, with the exception that Don Webster came through with three hits in the second game.

New League This will be the first time that Richmond Hill has ever entered into the Etobicoke League.

While there is still plenty of room for improvement, coaches Bob Carvont and Dave Branfield are looking forward to an interesting season.
