

Laurie and Jeremy Knight are planning to host a talent show on Richmond Hill's Cable 10 in September and are still looking for many unusual acts. They make a compatible team.

Laurie, Jeremy and Cousin Jugs hoping to organize talent show

Laurie Knight of Kirby Sideroad, Nashville, Jeremy and perhaps Cousin Jugs, are planning to organize and host a talent show on Richmond Hill Cable TV, Channel 10, in September.

Laurie, a 16-year-old graduate of Don Head Secondary School in Richmond Hill, is a self-taught ventriloquist and Jeremy and Cousin Jugs are her working partners.

She is aiming for a TV career, has appeared on numerous cable stations in the Toronto area, and performed on Romper Room last fall.

"Just recently, I co-hosted a show called Jester's React which appeared on a Scarborough cable station," she said. "This gave me practice in actually hosting a show, which is what I would like to do for a career."

So far, Laurie has managed to get a couple of singers and six dancing acts from Jennifer Morton School of Dance for the talent show.

"We still need short play scripts and actors, unusual acts, an impressionist, and more singers," she said.

Ventriloquism takes a great deal of determination and practice. It involves proper breathing and tongue positioning, and anyone can learn it if they are determined enough, she said.

Her first encounter with a ventriloquist was at the Kleinburg Binder Twine Festival when she was 14.

She learned through books, and it has just been recently that she has been able to create a lot of variety in her "inside" voices.

"I was just standing at the bus stop and all of a sudden I had a lot of different voices come to me," she said. "Now I can do a little girl's voice and am working on an old lady's voice."

Jeremy, who is just a poor country boy, used to be modelled after Charlie McCarthy and dressed in a top hat and tails.

"But I wanted something different; it was too much of a copy," she said. "So I bought Jeremy a new outfit."

In his red, blue and yellow patched overalls and cap, Jeremy sang his rendition of John Denver's song, "Thank God, I'm a Country Boy" with his shrill, high and surprisingly loud voice.

Cousin Jugs is a little more subdued in his brown checkered suit.

He is a country boy as well, but is a little more sophisticated than Jeremy.

They have performed with Laurie in hospitals and at birthday parties and will help her host the planned talent show.

"I'm hoping this show will be an on-going program on Cable 10," Laurie said. "If enough interest is shown it could turn out really well."

Anyone wishing to appear on the show should call Laurie at 893-1548.

Communion or communication?

PASTOR E. L. ANDERSON SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

The current issue of "LISTEN" magazine, a journal of better living, has this short poem on its back cover.

It is entitled "Communion" by Karen M. O'Donnell.

I know you not by your words but your spirit which drifts from your heart into mine.

The application can be made either vertically or horizontally i.e. whether it involves communion with God or communication with fellow man.

It is not by the multiplication of words or from the churches

much profession that a healthy religious or human relationship is established.

Each reader I am sure, can recall when meeting someone, even for the first time, he or she has said, "I'm going to like this person."

The opposite may also have been true.

It is not necessarily that the person liked, has to be bubbly, for of our Lord it is recorded that the people heard him gladly and that He spoke as one having authority.

Even if at the outset, princes, because an excellent spirit was in him" (Dan. 6:3).

Thoughtfully reflect on Proverbs 16:32, "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."

Our Master reproved his disciples for manifesting a haughty and vengeful spirit toward the Samaritans.

Today, would He rebuke some of His professed followers with the words recorded in Luke 9:55, "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of." Many of us may plead as did David of Old - - - "O God . . . renew a right spirit within me." Psalms 51:10.

Two people drown in York during week

York Regional Police reported two drownings in separate areas of the region last week.

In the first one, Egon Muschkat, 48, of R.R. 3, King City, drowned while swimming alone in Preston Lake near Vandorf, July 17.

His body was located the following day in eight feet of water after dragging operations.

July 18, Antonio Domingos, 39, of 57 Waneska Ave., Etokicoke, drowned while swimming with a friend in a pond on Concession 7 in Georgina.

Police said the man tried to find his friend — who he said was not a good swimmer — after he disappeared under the water, but without success.

He then called police, who recovered the body.
