

Gallanough

By JUNE ABBOTT

August will be a busy month at the Gallanough. On August 4 at 10 a.m. children of all ages are asked to come along to observe a pony care demonstration.

On August 11 between 1 and 4 p.m., seven to 12 year olds may attend a paper-making workshop and learn to make their own personal stationery. Free tickets are available at the library.

On Tuesday, August 16, everyone is invited to come on an African Lion Safari via film and short talk. Possibly a surprise guest will be present.

Bottle bands will be the order of the day on Thursday and Friday, August 18 and 19. Nine to 12 years olds are invited to come along between 1 and 5 p.m. on Thursday, and 5 to 8 year olds on Friday at the same time to learn to play simple tunes on bottles. This event will be limited to 25 participants.

Thursday, August 25 and Friday, August 26 from 1 p.m. will be bookmaking, when children from 9 to 12 will learn to make a hardcover bound book. Free tickets are available at the library to a limit of 30.

Boy's book expected soon

Bruno and Boots will be a little later than anticipated. According to Fran Buncombe of Scholastic Publications, the novel written by Gordon Korman of German Mills, was due for publication in September but may not be in circulation until January because of other commitments.

Gordon, who wrote the book when he was 12, is almost 14 and is currently working on his second novel, Bruno and Boots Together Again.

The third annual picnic of Shaar Shalom Synagogue is being held this Sunday, August 7 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Thompson park, Shelter B in Scarborough.

Members, friends, relatives and non-members are all invited. There will be games and prizes for the children. Admission is free but you are asked to bring your own food, drinks and lawn chairs.

Entrance to the park is from Brimley Road north of Lawrence Avenue East and there is adequate parking.

In case of inclement weather the picnic will be held the following week, Sunday, August 14.

The Beaver groups in the German Mills and Bayview Fairways areas may have difficulty starting up again in September.

Roz Chapnick of the Fifth Thornhill Group Committee says that Beaver leaders are desperately needed.

The need is so great that Mrs. Chapnick is willing to accept another Beaver if his mother or father will volunteer to be a leader.

The Beavers meet at German Mills Public School every Monday from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. and at Bayview Fairways

Public School Mondays from 5 to 6 p.m.

A Cub leader is also needed in the Bayview Fairways area on Thursdays from 6:30 to 8 p.m. No qualifications are necessary.

Those interested in helping the Beavers or Cubs should contact Mrs. Chapnick at 889-2004.
