Bluegrass group to be appearing in the Hill

All artists have been booked, and all dates confirmed for the Central Ontario Regional Library System's 1977 Touring Arts Program — one that will bring some of Canada's best-known actors, singers, musicians, puppeteers into public libraries in the regions of York, Peel and Durham this fall.

The artists booked are all first-rate performers according to program coordinator Marilyn Mandell.

Among the artists scheduled to appear are:

The Dixie Flyers, one of Canada's best-known bluegrass groups, who delighted local audiences last year. They will perform at Main Branch, Richmond Hill Public Library, Saturday, September 24 at 8 p.m.

Rossini the Magician, whose magic act involves audience members of all ages, will be a new attraction this year. Rossini will perform on Saturday, October 15 at 2 p.m. at the Concord Community Centre, in co-operation with the Vaughan Public Libraries, and on Saturday, October 29 at 2 p.m. at their Maple Branch.

Magic will also be the order of the day at several performances at different branches of the Richmond Hill Public Library on Saturday, November 5.

As well, Rossini will entertain on Saturday, November 26 at the Kleinburg Branch of the Vaughan Public Library.
