

Future potter

Michael Huan, 8, of Skopet Road, Richmond Hill, shows off a pot he made during the summer holiday. It was one of many items on display at Summerfest, a Parks and Recreation event to wind up summer program.

Framed

Also on display at Parks and Recreation Summerfest was this popsicle stick construction, being shown by Sean McQuiggin, 10, of McConvey Drive, Richmond Hill.

Local resident for 47 years, Jean Hill dies

Jean Lillie Hill, a resident of Richmond Hill since 1930, died last week in her 77th year, after suffering a heart attack on a trip to Niagara-on-the-Lake.

She was a respected teacher at Thornhill Public School from 1951-1965 and was past secretary of the superannuated teacher's association (STO).

She was also on the executive of the Ontario Women's Teacher's Federation (OASWT). She lived at 24 Dunlop St. She leaves her two sons, Allan and Edward, and granddaughters, Jennifer and Susan.
