

Belles bounce Stratford

Cathy Ceballo's grand slam homer was the icing on the cake as the Richmond Hill Belles walloped Stratford 16-6 Saturday night in Stratford and bounced them right out of the PWSA Double A playoffs. It was Richmond Hill's second straight win over the Stratford crew and propelled them into the finals against an as yet unnamed opponent. The Belles had also won the first game by an impressive but close 10-9 score Friday night at the Richmond Hill Town Park. It was a different story Saturday night as the Belles jumped into a 1-0 lead in the first inning and added eight more in the third. Came the sixth inning and they blitzed across seven runs including Ceballo's big four-run homer. Winning pitcher was Kathy Chepelsky who went four-and-two-third innings before being replaced by Karen McInnis who went the rest of the way striking out seven.

Centrefielder Maria McLean came up with several excellent catches in both games. Also a standout was catcher Janet Gerretse. Friday night's contest saw a determined Stratford club battling all the way down to the wire.

The Belles jumped into a seven-run first inning lead on well placed bunts by Patti O'Sullivan and Heather Moore which seemed to upset the Stratford team. Then came some fine hitting by pitcher Chepelsky, Maria McLean and Kathy Trumble driving in the

Baif gals are moving

The Richmond Hill Cadillac-Baif Midget girls rebounded from a first game defeat to win the next two and eliminate the Scarboro Holiday Inn girls from second round of the PWSA playdowns. They then went on to wallop Grimsby 10-2 in the first game of the third round behind the pitching of Debbie Howorth who struck out seven. Big hitters for the evening were Stephanie Clarke with a triple and a single; Howorth a triple and two singles; Nancy Schneider, a double and a single. Lauren MacInnis cleared the bases but was out attempting to get home on the same play. Lose first one The series against Holiday Inn saw Richmond Hill losing the first game 7-4 with the Hill runs scored by Martha Dynes, Stephanie Clarke and Darlene Harrison with two. Richmond Hill tied the series in the second game via a 5-2 victory Debbie Howorth taking the win and striking out seven batters. Richmond Hill runs were scored by Lorretta King, Dynes, Harrison, Howorth and Lauren MacInnis.

Lawn bowling

4 wins for Hill

By Jack Gartlan

The week-long Provincial Lawn Bowling Tournament saw Richmond Hill bowlers picking up four wins in the finals at the Toronto Boulevard Club.

Winners were Gary Charity, Dawson Hare, Roy Stone. Frank Zazzara won the tournament and the Usher's trophy presented through McGuiness Agencies Ltd., on behalf of J. G. Steward Ltd.

Curly Lynett and Fred Thomas. They came home with the Margesson-Henselite Trophy. Four event winners for the Parker Pen trophy were Floyd Perkins, Larry Wales, Bob Walls and Syd Brown.

The cruncher came in the third and final game with the Hill winning 4-3 with, yep, Howorth doing the chucking again and striking out five batters. Both Harrison and MacInnis scored on Holiday Inn errors. The same MacInnis and Stephanie Clarke scored the other two runs. Big hitter for the evening was Schneider with two triples.

The "fours" division saw Richmond Hill winning three of the five events.

The third event was won by the rink skipped by Jim Grainger and comprising Al White,

In the singles competition Gary Charity won the second event and a Kodak Canada trophy.

Halfway House leads

Halfway House maintained its comfortable lead in Richmond Hill Ladies Recreational Softball League play by outscoring Durkins BP 31-27.

Sound infielding by Brian's was the key to its victory particularly by Carol Crossley, Theresa Rowe and Anne Mathewson behind the plate.

Brownley came in to pitch in the third inning and held Brian's to only a run per inning after that. Standings: Halfway House (9-2) 18 points; Brian's Shell (7-4) 14; Durkins BP (4-7), 8; Raypak Thermonics (3-8) 6.

Other action saw Brian's Shell thumping

Raypak's Donna
