

Rice's use homers to pull out win over Lecuyer gals

By GALE FERRANDO
Rice's Flowers used the homer-route to pull out a come-from-behind 15-13 victory over LeCuyer Electric in Richmond Hill junior girls' minor softball league play last week.

Belting out the homers were Allison Kent and Laurie Anne Bishop.

Defensively it was Ann Marie McKay coming up with a neat double play while Sherri Ferrando made a nice catch of a pop fly.

Suzanne Filkus pitched a good game for LeCuyer in a losing cause and received excellent defensive help from Tracy Stewart and Heather Williamson.

Mary Lynn Scullino also homered. Janet Fournier played a heads-up game.

Following are previously rained-out games:

Ziebart 14, Bender Rugs 6. Sidney Peter caught a superb game for Ziebart, Greg Caronis caught a nice fly, and John Deminiuk went two for three at bat.

For Bender it was Kevin Smith, Andy Marshall and David Nicol going three for four. Also playing well were Scott Naylor and Scott Rice.

Intermediate Grandslammer Dairy Queen 22, Hilltop 12. A grandslam homer for Dairy Queen's Leslie Ford with Tracy Clement and Cathy Lawlor each homering twice and Maureen Lawlor once.

Anne Marie MacKay went three for four for Hilltop and Ann Marie Lannon went three for four including a double; and Lori Caruk tripled.

Record Shop 33, Belhaven 10. A big grandslam homer for Bev Harvey of Record Shop with Karen Wells hitting two homers. Vicki Arseneau and Lisa Ash played well. Carol Guyton, Bernadette McLaughlin and Angela Guyton went three for three for Belhaven.

Squirrels Loughlin wins Loughlin Home Supply 19, Richmond Hill Auto Body 13. Jason Trenton paced the winners with three for four at bat including a homer. Ron Gelineau went two for four and tacked on a homer. Craig Smith was fine defensively behind the plate.

For Richmond Hill it was Mike Daggett tripling with Roger LaFleur going three for five. Doug Hankin also impressed.

N.S. Smith 7, R.F. Mote 7. Two fifth inning triples by Henry and Grimshaw helped Smith to tie the game. Danny Buchanan impressed while Mote's Kelly Thorpe doubled in the third inning and tripled in the fourth. The entire Mote team played well defensively.

T-Ball Mr. Transmission 26, Water Refining 26. Transmission's Kevin Patenaude and Paul Black each tripled. Defensive standouts were Tina Weir and Bobby Hughes. Jeff Tromanhauser, Lisa Kristenson, Kristi Bullock, and Chris Campbell, all homered for Refining; Didi Richardson and Lisa Wardrope went two for four at bat.

R.H. Centre 28, Baymar 25. Wayne Price homered for the winners while Victoria Leonard, Derek Flood and Darlene Grimshaw all went five for five.

Lori Emmel went four for five while Heidi Moss came up with some terrific base running for Baymar; and Clarke Marrin hit four for four including two triples. Aaron Dealy played well.

5 Triples Y.P.A. 40, Town Auto Body 10. Excellent games for Y.P.A. by Keith Bishop, Kevin Lawlor and Jennifer Porter. Jeff Campbell was six for six at bat with no less than five triples and a homer.

For Town Auto it was Jeff Harrison homering with Jodi Gohn playing well defensively. Mark Monahan also homered and impressed on defence.

Fall dance
The Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association will be holding its Fall Dance Sept. 10 at the Lions Hall on Centre Street East.

Those wishing to attend are asked to purchase tickets early as sales are limited to 200. Tickets may be obtained from any executive member at the diamonds or by calling Lillian Chepelsky at 884-7290. Tickets are $12 per couple.

Our 50-50 draw tickets are now on sale so please help support minor ball by purchasing yours now.

The seller of the winning ticket will receive $50.

Hey, don't shove

Paul Grice (11) of Continental Kitchens seems to have the edge on John Zandona (9) of Midas

Muffler in this desperate struggle for ball control supremacy in last week's Richmond Hill Minor Soccer house league thriller. And thriller it was as both teams fought to a 1-1 tie with Danny Bilotta scoring for Kitchens and John Zandona for Midas.

Treppo rips home 7 goals

By Jane Stel
Steven Treppo had a hot hand for Legion Branch 375 Squirts as he ripped home seven goals to lead his team to a 12-0 whopping of Cadillac Baif in Richmond Hill Minor Soccer League play.

The other goals went to Sean Sanderson with two and singles to Andy Minuti, Billie Tollis and Ian Sanderson.

Other squirt results saw Invictas pulling the plug on Deal Services in severe fashion winning 12-0 behind the four-goal effort of Craig August with double goals going to Raymond Hubrich and Peter McNamara.

(No game sheet received for Ratcliffs vs Caesars.)

Pizza 2. Bruce Smith led the winning way with three goals with Paul Crowder firing in two. Singles went to Mike Rumble and Shaun Dean.

Town Rep teams
Scholastic Publications 3, Markham 2. A determined Scholastic gang edged the visitors in a well-played contest. Richmond Hill goals went to Pat McMurray, Heinz Losberg and Maurice Del Fabro.

House League — Mosquitoes
Silveri hot

Tournaments Inc. 10, Baymar Sports 0. Frank Silveri triggered four goals for the winners with Brian Close getting three. David West scored twice and Peter Gonzales once.

Don Deb Construction 4, Baymar Sports 0. M. Rothwell got all four goals for the winners.

Midas Muffler 1, Continental Kitchens 1. Danny Bilotta scored for Kitchens, John Zandona for Midas.

Atoms
Jakma Construction 2, Globe Travel 1. Paddy Kelly and Steve Persi scored for the winners with Chris Mill replying for the losers. Sabino Nuova was excellent in goal for Jakma.

(Game sheets for Dunlop and R.H. Lions not turned in.)

Smith gets 3
Sanderson Gulf 7, Thornhill Village

richmond hill soccer

Peewees
Richmond United 4, North York Trophies 4. T. Martinelli scored two for United with the others going to P. Delgrosso and H. Thornhill. For North York it was Ralph Coppalo scoring twice and singles to Greg Anderson and Rick Scragg.

Peter's Excavating 1, Flair Upholstery 0. Peter's won by default.

Next week

Next week's games: Aug. 23, Squirts, Caesar's Palace vs Deal Services, Cadillac Baif vs Ratcliffs, Invictas vs Legion Branch 375.

Aug. 24, Atoms, Dunlop St. 76ers vs Sanderson Gulf, Globe Travel vs Richmond Hill Lions, Thornhill Village Pizza vs Jakma Construction.

Aug. 25, Mosquito, Tournaments Inc. vs Continental Kitchens, Midas Muffler vs Don Deb Construction. Baymar Sports has a bye.

Aug. 22, Peewee, Peter's Excavating vs North York Trophies, Richmond United vs Flair Upholstery.

Standings

Squirts	W	L	T	P
Invictas	10	0	0	20
Legion Branch 375	8	2	0	16
Deal Services	4	5	1	9
Ratcliffs	3	5	1	7
Caesar's Palace	2	7	0	4
Cadillac Baif	1	9	0	2

Atoms

Jakma Construction	7	1	2	16
Globe Travel	5	4	1	11
Sanderson Gulf	3	3	2	8
Richmond Hill Lions	2	2	4	8
Thornhill Village Pizza	3	5	1	7
Dunlop St. 76ers	1	6	0	2

Men's fastball

Three-way battle raging for first

By DAVE BARBOUR

A three-way battle for first place is fast developing as the Richmond Hill Men's Fastball League moves into the final week of its regular schedule.

Video Real Estate moved to within a single point of the league-leading but idle Joe's Garage Juniors as they walloped Mill's Roses 11-0.

The juniors have had to postpone a number of their league games due to being involved in the OASA playdowns.

Holding down third place, just three points from first and two from second, is a determined Town Auto Body squad who blasted Richmond Hill Auto 13-5.

Playoff setup
Six teams will make up the championship playoff series with all other teams qualifying for the consolation series. McKinlay Drywall and Barrow's Insurance lead in this group.

They also have an outside chance of reaching the championship series.

Last week's results:
1-hitter-Webster
Video Real Estate 11, Mill's Roses 0. Dave Webster was the defensive hero in this one tossing a one-hitter.

He was aided offensively by Steve Wood's two homers accounting for three runs. Bobby Howard also hit for the distance with a runner on.

Wood went three for four at the plate while Gord Woolnough had three for five.

Terry Legge started on the mound for Mill's but was lifted in favor of Bill Jackson.

Glen Greenslade each homering with a man on accounting for four of their runs. Rob Forget's fielder's choice allowed the fifth run to score.

Gary Oliver was the winning pitcher although Terry Haviland relieved him on two occasions.

Hill Auto wins
Richmond Hill Auto 9, McKinlay Drywall 4. Val Steffan went four for four while Rob Forget had two runs-batted-in plus a homerun. Barry Locke also drove in a pair of runs.

Bob Ritchie also doubled in a losing cause and was McKinlay's top threat. Ritchie was a legal pick-up by McKinlay's.

Clement was the winning pitcher, Craig Shuttlesworth the loser.

Jack Blyth Real Estate 6, Mill's Roses 1. This game featured a comedy of errors.

Wayne Roffey had two rib's in this one for the winner's while brother Dale had one. Fred Strang also doubled in a runner.

Winning pitcher was Don Walker, loser Barry Mathews.

They played
A previous meeting between these two clubs was reported to have been rained out. It wasn't. Blyth won it 5-3.

The only other game saw McKinlay Drywall clobbering York Regional Police 19-1. Blair Robson led the way with a two-run homer with Phil Skinner hitting a solo blast.

Larry Wilson got the lone police run on a hit by losing pitcher Ken Harmon. Wilf Diceman tossed the win.

	P	W	L	T	P
Joe's Garage Juniors	16	13	1	1	28
Video Real Estate	18	12	3	3	27
Town Auto Body	17	12	4	1	25
Richmond Hill Auto Body	18	11	7	0	22
Jenkin's Garden Supplies	17	9	6	2	20
Jack Blyth Real Estate	18	9	7	2	20
McKinlay Drywall	18	9	9	0	18
Barrow's Insurance	17	8	8	1	17
Ronald's Federated	17	5	11	1	11
Mill's Roses	18	5	13	0	10
Lake Wilcox	18	3	13	2	8
York Regional Police	16	1	15	0	2

Yer out!

Nelson Lund of Jenkins Garden Supplies is nipped at first base by Town Auto Body's Jim Henderson but this was just half the story. Jenkin ended up 5-3 winners Monday night in Richmond Hill Men's Fastball League action.

Always be serious when you play tennis says writer Handbury

By Eric Handbury
Tennis is an art and because there are certain types of behavioral patterns that have become, traditionally, respected in the game I felt it necessary to devote this column to the shocking disregard members have been giving to the proper rules of gamesmanship and conduct.

dazzling and bewildering the linesman to a point that he can never decide at what moment of time you hit the ball during your 'pas de deux'. Bad line calls must also be carried out with the greatest amount of elan. To make a bad call and then glare at your opponent marks you clearly as nothing more than a hacker.

returned well before you call the ball in or out. The call should be made at the precise moment when the ball is at the point of crossing, or not crossing the net. The number of times that I have noticed members do a fantastic return on an out ball only to lose the point by calling it out is nothing sort of astounding.

Take for instance footfaulting. When you intend to use this most valuable aid to the game it should be done with absolute coolness, particularly when no linesman is being employed.

Having made the call, which may very well be a foot inside the line, pay no attention to that point from there on. Walk over to the other side of the court as though it were the most natural act in the world and settle down for the next serve.

Hand gestures can be used to good effect in line signalling — everybody knows that palm down means in and finger raised means out. It should be obvious to anyone with a good knowledge of the game that with a few practice sessions in the privacy of the home a palm down signal can be given with the finger upraised which is bound to confuse your opponent into asking what the call was, giving time to make the best decision in your favour.

Paying any attention to the whispering critics in the clubhouse is completely unforgivable, the amount of foot fault should be carefully measured so that it has every appearance of being efficient and unintentional.

Should you have the misfortune of having diligent linesmen on your end the art of footfaulting should be altered considerably. The serve should be started at a respectable distance from the backline but should not be completed until after you have done a fast series of clever choreography: a type of 'tennis tango' that will serve the purpose of

If you detect any bitterness in your opponent look confused, as though you have been matched against a rank beginner who is not yet sure which side he should be on. Any further stupidity on his part can usually be avoided by calling out the score, wrong and markedly in your favour, which will usually prompt him to correct that first before he forgets his earlier objection.

Another thing that members appear to be forgetting — when you are returning serve, watch the ball. Wait until you are perfectly sure whether you have

It saddens me to see these little rules of conduct being disregarded, the traditional values of the game must be cherished if we want to avoid the day when only athletes will win the game of tennis.

Practice conduct and the little courtesies — for instance, in mixed doubles, always let the lady serve first, that is if you do not mind losing.

Field hockey school

Marina van der Merwe, coach of the Canadian field hockey team, and Win Heath, England's team coach, will lead a field hockey seminar at York University, August 26 to 29.

program of practical field hockey sessions, lectures and recreational activities. York University has excellent field hockey facilities including three playing fields, practice areas and gymnasiums, in case of inclement weather.

umpiring rules and techniques.

The seminar is being offered by York University's Department of Physical Education and Athletics, in cooperation with the Ontario Women's Field Hockey Association, for the benefit of female players and coaches.

Participants will take part in a well-balanced

York professor Marina van der Merwe is a past member of the Canadian field hockey team and coach of the Ontario team, 1973 and 1977 Canada Games. Win Heath, a former member of the Welsh team, is a class "A" umpire in England.

The field hockey seminar is open to the public. Prospective applicants should call the York University Sports Seminar Office at (416) 667-3529