

Richvale in breeze

Emerald Isle Real Estate Midgets bounced Victoria Square 14-5 in Richvale Minor Ball last week with Craig Wolley and Rob Haehnel pitching a strong game.

Mike Gatt scored three runs for the winners while Jamie Mitchell had the only homer.

Other midget play saw: Emerald Isle Real Estate 8, Kentway 2. Rob Haehnel pitched a great game for Emerald with eight strikeouts while Bill Logush had a single, double and triple. Roger Nicholson topped things off with a homerun.

Bantam girls' race to the playoffs is really tightening up and parents and sponsors are asked to come out and see some good ball games.

Rains came And then the rains came with many games washed out on the weekend or called because of poor playing conditions. Following are the results for those teams able to beat the weatherman.

T-Ball
Emmanuel Church 27, Poolcraft 26. Heavy hitting from Etienne Grant with three homers and Ian Hooper with two doubles for Emmanuel.

Squirts
Woodbridge 19, York Regional Police Association 14. The Richvale gals worked hard with Amber Ezechiels and Christine Perry scoring four runs apiece but Woodbridge was too powerful.

Bantam
Epic Real Estate 9, Victoria Square 8. The Epic girls finally gained a piece of first place last week by pulling off this squeaker.

Kim Robertson led the way on the mound with six strikeouts while offensively it was Diane Greenfield with two singles and doubles to Cathy Baillie and Kim McDowell.

Ruth Frisby and Penny Smith doubled for Victoria Square while Sarah Brino smacked a triple.

Epic Real Estate 8, Rose Trailers 6. Jackie Perry's single and double helped the Rose cause only to be damped by her sister Linda's two singles in the Epic cause.

Diane Greenfield's homerun and Vickie Smillies two singles were also big factors in the win. Kim Jacob caught a fine game.

Hill squirts bow out

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts made a hasty departure from the OASA playdowns last week as they dropped 6-4 and 8-4 decisions to Don Victoria from North York.

The first game was there for the taking as the Hillers actually outthrew their opponents 9-8, but left 11 runners stranded on base.

Pat Thompson and Kevin McInnis both had two hits apiece in this contest with Thompson banging out a homerun. Wayne Murphy lined a triple.

McInnis took the loss as he allowed eight hits while fanning seven and walking two.

The second game score of 8-4 was really quite flattering to Richmond Hill and did not really indicate the advantage in play as the Hillers were never really in the game.

Glen Harding was the only player to get a clean hit as he doubled to left field in the last inning. Other than that the Hill boys could manage only three infield singles, one by Harding and two by McInnis.

The Don Victoria pitcher had a big night as he struck out 15 Richmond Hill batters.

Despite their anemic bats the Hillers once again left 10 men on base.

McInnis was the losing pitcher as he gave up eight hits and fanned eight while walking one.

Despite some fine fielding plays by several players the overall defence was not good as the Dairy Queen boys committed five errors.

Yea! A hole-in-one

Don't tell Thornhill golfer, Don Poscente, 16, of 67 Royal Orchard Boulevard, that the number 13 is unlucky.

So far as Don's concerned, it's just one of a kind. Or maybe that should be, hole-in-one of a kind.

Last season at Uplands, he scored an ace on the 198-yard seventh, using a three iron, and on the 178-yard second, with a four iron.

A grade 11 student at Thornlea secondary school, he is now in his third year at Uplands and has a 10 handicap.

Playing in a foursome last week at Uplands golf course in Thornhill, Don popped his tee shot into the cup. He used a sand wedge for the 110-yard hole.

The latter had been cut down from 113 yards to 110, because of earlier rain conditions.

The hole-in-one was Don's third in the past two years.

Pat Thompson and Kevin McInnis both had two hits apiece in this contest with Thompson banging out a homerun. Wayne Murphy lined a triple.

McInnis took the loss as he allowed eight hits while fanning seven and walking two.

The second game score
