

Darlingtons are leaving Oak Ridges

By MILLIE STEWART 773-4424
Fred and Jo Darlington have lived in the same house on Aubrey Ave., since 1951. After all these years, they are moving away.

They have sold their house and will be taking a long trip to Los Angeles to visit their daughter, Chris and her family. Afterwards, they will move on to British Columbia and when they find a nice place to retire, they will move there.

Before they left, their friends from Aubrey Ave. wanted to have a farewell get-together. A tea was held at the home of Mrs. Gisela Jende of 20 Aubrey Ave. She was assisted by Mrs. Margaret Allwood also of Aubrey Ave.

All the old time friends arrived at 3:30 Saturday afternoon to say goodbye. Fred and Jo will take with them special momentos of their time here. Fred's gift is a jack-knife key chain with the inscription 'Oak Ridges, 1951-1977.'

Jo's gift is a silver spoon with the trillium on the handle and the same inscription on the spoon.

HELPMATE AT LIBRARY
Beginning Sept. 6 and continuing every second Tuesday afternoon, Helpmate will be at the Charles Connor Library at the King Sideroad and Yonge St. from 1:30 to 4. They will be there to assist anyone in the community with answers, information and help.

They will also be displaying a community calendar of upcoming events of interest to the community.

BOOKINGS ARE UP
Not too long ago, a letter was delivered to all area residents saying the new community centre at Lake Wilcox was built for the community, but it was not being used. I called the Parks and Recreation Department and got a list of all activities, and some of them are in the centre.

At the present time, there is a new club at the centre. It is called the Oak Ridges G.R.S. Club, for C.B. operators.

They meet once a month, and if you are interested, you may inquire by writing to Box 97, Lake Wilcox.

YOGA ANYONE?
There is a new class in Yoga starting at the community centre on Sept. 12. There will be ten classes in all.

The cost for the ten weeks is $20. and if you would like to register, you'd best do so now, because the class is filling fast. Mrs. Munro's number is 727-2343.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Last spring, some concerned adults from Richmond Hill started a club for kids at Lake Wilcox School. It seems that the kids liked it so much, they gave it a name.

It is now called the Sunshine Club, and they have been meeting all summer. The club is for children aged 6 to 14.
