

York Regional Police Briefs

A man was charged with attempted arson after he was found running away from the rear of a Woodbridge residence where a plastic container of gasoline was found.

Charged with attempted arson is Wayne Charles Downey, 27, of Toronto.

WINDOW BROKEN
The front window was broken and seven vases were removed at the residence of Anne Rapone, Woodbridge Avenue in Woodbridge last week, causing $100 damage.

A number of cars in that area were also sprayed with mustard.

SIX CHARGES
A 12-year-old live-in helper is charged with six counts of forgery and theft over $200 from the home of Mrs. B. Blumes, Roman Road, Thornhill.

The victim employed the juvenile from July 1 to August 15 during which time the accused allegedly forced six cheques totalling $1,020 and stole $400 worth of jewelry.

The juvenile is expected to appear in court today.

SAW STOLEN
The premises of Reid Mower Marine and Sport, Yonge Street, were entered last week and several chain saws and a gas motor was stolen.

Value of the goods is estimated at more than $3,000.

MAN ASSAULTED
Francis Timothy Pellet, of 14th Avenue, Markham, was assaulted on his own property last weekend by six male suspects after they damaged his vegetable garden.

The victim was having a corn roast when the men arrived.

They asked for a certain person who was not at the party, then drove into the garden before assaulting the victim.

Pellet suffered cuts and bruises to his face and ribs, and was knocked unconscious.

Police investigation is continuing.

FOUR CHARGED
Four men have been charged with the $35,000 heist of sound equipment belonging to a Markham firm in mid-July.
