

Hill athletes at Ontario Games

The Ontario Summer Games will be well-flavored with local athletes when they open their doors next Friday night at Kitchener.

Well-represented will be track and field, lawn bowling, lawn tennis as well as softball and field hockey.

Heading the track and field contingent will be Bob Thompson of the Tri-County Track and Field Club who will be in charge of the Central Region team.

It'll include Jane Toporowski who gained herself a bronze medal in the recent Canada Games in Newfoundland for finishing third in the discus event; Fred Robbins who will be competing in the 2,000 metre steeple chase and 5,000 metre; and Debbie Pegg, in the high jump and long jump. Toporowski will compete in the pentathlon, high jump, shot put and discus.

Also making the trek will be a four-man Richmond Hill Lawn Bowling team in the persons of Gary Charity, Gordon Anne Frickleton, field Legacy, Bill Henderson, and Frank Zazzara.

And four lawn tennis players, Mark Bedard, June Beck, Mark Girdler and John Handbury of Richmond Hill.

Three people will be involved in team sports from Richmond Hill — Bruce Weir, softball; Gary Charity, field hockey; and Darlene McConnery, basketball.

Take aim, fire

Something to bowl about here. The happy faces belong (left to right) to Gord Legacy, Bill Henderson, Frank Zazzara, and Gary Charity of the Richmond Hill Lawn

Bowling Club. They'll be competing in the Ontario Summer Games next weekend at Kitchener and will be looking to make their mark. All are from Richmond Hill.

It's playoff time in Hill minor ball

By GALE FERRANDO
It's playoff time again for teams in the Richmond Hill Minor Ball house league with the opening rounds getting under way this week at Bradstock Park.

The same teams will play each other both weeks with total runs determining the winner.

Final playoffs will be held Sept. 10 at the following parks:

Town Park — 9 a.m., Squirt Boys; 10:30 a.m., T-Ball; 12 noon, Senior Girls; 2 p.m., Peeewe Boys; Crosby Park — 10 a.m., Intermediate Girls; 11:30 a.m., Junior Girls; 1 p.m., Tyke Boys.

Tournament Day will be held Sept. 17 at Bradstock Park with the first games beginning at 9 a.m. The winners of the skills competitions will receive their medallions on Tournament Day.

The finals for the skills contest will take place next Saturday at Bradstock Park from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.
