

bowling out of OASA

the best-of-three series.

Richmond Hill had won the opener 4-2 before losing the second game 4-3.

OUTLUCKED

The third and final contest, played in Barrie, saw Richmond Hill hurler Glen Moreland simply outlucked in a fine performance which saw him striking out 14 batters while allowing only five hits.

Joe's managed seven hits off Owen Sound's Tom White but left 12 runners stranded on base.

Owen Sound's lone and winning run came in the top half of the third inning when Moreland issued his only walk of the game.

That was to Owen Sound's Bob McKibben who was promptly sacrificed to second and rode home on pitcher White's single.

THREATS FIZZLE

Richmond Hill had two major threats going for it in the eighth and ninth innings but both fizzled out.

The eighth saw Greg Walton singling and moving to second on another single by Paul Philip. Both runners advanced on an infield out.

There were two out when Moreland walked to load the bases. The threat ended when the next batter struck out.

Richmond Hill looked like a sure bet to tie the game in the bottom of the ninth when, with one out, Ben Bourget lined a single to right field. He ended up on third base when the ball was misplayed.

Steve Madden's grounder to third was fumbled but Bourget was unable to score. Madden then stole second. With two men out, Greg Walton hit a sharp grounder to second which was momentarily bobbled. Walton was nipped at the bag and it was all over.

Owen Sound now goes on to meet Willowdale Golden Bears in the Zone three finals.

And it's back to the Richmond Hill Men's Fastball League for Joe's Garage and a battle to get back into first place after missing some games because of the playoffs.
