

Plumbers down Kinnear

By Gale Ferrando
Powell Plumbing opened its semi-final playoff series with a convincing 9-4 victory over Powell Plumbing in Richmond Hill Minor Ball Tyke play last week.

Chris Anderson pitched two and a half innings of great ball for the winners and also teamed up with Bobby Cook for a double play.

Brian Hunt stepped in to relieve Chris in the fifth. Defensively it was Bruce Nelson playing well with three put outs in a row. Rob MacMillan and Brian Hunt went two-for-two at bat. Robbie Bell threw an excellent game for Kinnear.

Other tyke results:
McWatt homers
Ziebart 15, Bender Rugs 10. Paul McWatt socked out a homerun while Sid Peters and Greg Caronis each went three for four. David Nicol and Jeff Macrea were effective at the plate for Bender.

Hill Squirts lose
The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts participated in the Markham Invitational tournament last Saturday and got as far as the "A" Championship game before bowing out to a powerful Bridlewood team.

The Hillers started the day off by bombing Stouffville 15-1 behind the three hit pitching of Kevin McInnis.

McInnis experienced some wildness early in the game as he walked the first three batters he faced, but later settled down to record nine strikeouts.

The Hill boys pounded out 14 hits with McInnis having a perfect four for four game including his 14th homerun of the season. Bert Ball had three hits while Glen Harding and Dave Repath each had two. Ball banged out a homer while Harding had a home run.

Sal Nocitra played well in left field including a tremendous catch in the third inning.

homered for Mote while Paul Joslin singled.

Triple play
N. S. Smith 33, Louglin 0. Smith's infield came up with a beautifully executed triple play. Steve Byers made a fine grab on a line drive. Danny Buchanan and Tom Duffy caught fly balls. Danny McVean had a triple, two doubles and six rbi's. Glen Gadsby tripled while Joe Clark had three rbi's. Ron Gelineau and Paul Cronin played well for Louglin.

Peewee
Record Shop 26, Dave's Esso 7. Jim Wiggins had four hits and a walk for Record Shop. Mark Peppin had three for three and Doug MacLean two for three for Dave's. Ramsey Rec. 11, Dynes 2.
