

Rotary Club plays ball Sunday

Nine of the finest softball members (at one time or another) of the Richmond Hill Rotary Club will be taking to the field at Bradstock Park next Sunday at 11 a.m., to do battle with fellow Rotarians from Willowdale, Fergus and Oshawa.

It'll be the first (maybe the last depending on the casualties) of what's hoped to be an annual District 707 Rotarian softball tournament.

"Most of us are in our 40's and 50's," states Richmond Hill Rotarian Joe Horvat, "so we just live from inning-to-inning."

Horvat, who will catch, states the tournament "will be a fun-thing which will help us get to know some of our other Rotarians in various communities."

"We hope the spectators will drop down and watch the games," he said.

Added Horvat: "For the most part armchair ball players, these men now intend to practice what they preach and they will be prepared to play ball."

"Even though some waist lines will be non-existent and a few chests have dropped, spectators can expect an afternoon of exciting ball."

"What these guys lack in professionalism, they make up for in determination. If you're looking for a fun-afternoon then grab a chair and join the Rotarians at Bradstock Park."

"Please note there will be no seventh-inning stretch as these players consider that a game."

Comprising the Richmond Hill line-up will be the aforementioned Joe Horvat, catching; Cam Smith, pitcher; Bill Cook, first base; Harry Gerber, second base; Ian MacLean, shortstop; Joe Malboeuf, third base.

The outfield will consist of Doug Allen, Neil Mann, and Bill Law-Spares, Jim Abraham, Dennis Stainer.

There was no mention of whether a first-aid ambulance would be in attendance.

Just in case.
Jazz bands to appear at the Mall

"Newport North," is the way Hillcrest Mall describes its fall jazz festival, starting Sept. 14, and which will run every Wednesday for seven weeks, from 5:30 p.m. till 8 p.m.

The festival, which will take place in the market court among the trees at the Mall, will get underway with Jim Galloway's Metro Stompers, who also appeared at the Mill Pond this summer, as part of Richmond Hill parks and recreation department's summer program of free concerts.

Others appearing at the Mall: Pete Savory's Louisiana Joymakers, Sept. 21; Harvey Silver and his Band, Sept. 28; Dr. McJazz, Oct. 5; Jim Abercrombie's Vintage Jazz Band, Oct. 12; Jim McHarg's Midnight Special, Oct. 19; The Climax Jazz Band, Oct. 26.

North York theatre plans new season

The famous Broadway musical, "No, No, Nanette," and the equally famed drama, "Twelve Angry Men," will be performed this season by North York Theatre for the Performing Arts.

Both of the productions by the group — formerly Thornhill Theatre — now in its ninth season, will be entered in the Association of Community Theatres' Festival.

The group is looking for members to participate in all areas of acting, singing, backstage work or production. No experience is necessary.

Anyone interested is asked to call Paul at 221-2497.

A membership meeting, followed by an audition, will be held Sept. 12 at 8 p.m. at Willowdale High School, 225 Senlac Ave. at Finch Ave. E.
