

You show them, Cam

He ain't Eddie Feigner but maybe just as ancient. Not really. He's Cam Smith the friendly Richmond Hill banker and he's pitching in the first Richmond Hill Rotary Club softball tournament held Sunday at Bradstock Park. Cam didn't toss a no-hitter but he was certainly a "hit" with opposition.

Rotarians swing out

They didn't really do too badly but they didn't win either.

That was the story Sunday for Richmond Hill in the first annual Rotarian Softball Tournament at Bradstock Park.

The local entry put out a gallant effort in the tournament which was won by Oshawa in the final game 8-6 over Willowdale. Except it wasn't enough.

Richmond Hill "clobbered" Ferguson in the first game but lost the second one 7-6 to Oshawa and then 18-12 to Willowdale.

Big local Rotarian hero was Dennis Stayner who belted four home runs. "It was a great day, lots of fun," said Rotarian Joe Horvat who also played.

Then it was back to Rotarian Don Halliday's on Sugar Maple Lane for post-games postmortems.

That's where the tournament really warmed up.

16 teams

Centennial tourney

By Jane Stel

Sixteen teams will be participating in the Richmond Hill Minor Soccer Club's Centennial Soccer Tournament next Saturday at Langstaff Secondary School.

Richmond Hill will be represented by Kinsmen's Club Minor Mosquitoes and The Liberal Major Mosquitoes.

A cafeteria will be open for the convenience of spectators.

Also upcoming is the league's annual year-end dance at the Richvale Community Centre Oct. 1 featuring George Cowie and his band.

Tickets are available by calling Jane Stel at 884-2560 at $10 a couple which includes a buffet and a chance at the door prizes.

Treppo gets four

The Legion Branch 375 Squirts downed Caesar's Palace 6-1 in Richmond Hill Minor Soccer House League play last week with Steven Treppo showing the way with four goals.

Sean Sanderson had two. P. Christie got the lone goal for Caesar's.

Lawn bowling

It was an all-Richmond Hill triumph last Sunday in a Mixed Pairs Tournament here.

High three-game winners were Larry and Judy Wales of Richmond Hill; high two-game winners, Ilene and Wes Wonch, also of Richmond Hill; and, yes, high one-game victors, Alex Quinn and Marg Walton, of the Hill.

A number of out-of-town rinks entered but finished out of the money.

Thornhill hard ball

Thornhill minor league hardball playoff action this week saw Tempon ousting N.S. Smith 11-8 in the semi-finals and Thornhill Lions defeating H & S Reliance 11-4. Tempon and the Lions meet tomorrow night (Thursday) at 6:30 in Thornhill Park.

Trophies vs Flair Upholstery; Peter's Excavating vs Richmond United.

Cup Final Day will be held Sept. 24 at Crosby Park.

Table soccer

A "Table Soccer Tournament" will be held all day next Friday and Saturday at the Upper Canada Mall in Newmarket.

Winners of the tournament will go into the finals with the winner of that tournament to represent Canada in the world finals next February.

All comers are welcome. A recent table soccer tournament at Hillcrest Mall in Richmond Hill was won by Jim Forbes of Thornhill and Cleve Jones of Richmond Hill. They'll be competing in the finals.

Thornhill Lions roar to victory

The Thornhill Minor Bantam Lions lived up to their name in the York Inter-District Minor Soccer League this season.

Simply by finishing in first place with a seven win, three tie, and two loss record.

Good enough to edge out Aurora and Richmond Hill in the league's first year of operation.

Lions' coaches Bill Torrance and Ron Norton were even happier because the club has only been in existence for three years.

"That's what made us happy," said Torrance. "Thornhill is a young league and it was very gratifying to put a team together like this at such an early stage of the game."

The Lions were the only Thornhill team to win a division title in the first season of outside competitive play.

"This was the first year any of our Thornhill teams came up against outside competition," said Torrance. "These other clubs had more experience going for them." The Lions, who lost their final league game 2-1 to Aurora, also chalked other exhibition wins over Richmond Hill, Armourdale and York Mills.

They suffered defeat at the hands of a very strong Don Mills club and also to the North York Spartans in the Ontario Cup.

"Effort did it for us," said Torrance, "the boys just played their hearts out." The team's line-up consists of Joey Foti, goalkeeper; Wayne Norton, Gilad Samuel, fullbacks; Campbell Torrance, centre-half; Donald Mummery, Mike Anderson, halves; and Carlo Bravo, Corey Miller, Allan Pitong, Don Tai, Joey Stenta, Ernest Grzincic; and Randy Lothrop, Rob Bagg, defence.

Other action saw the Thornhill minor atoms lose a tough 1-0 game to Richmond Hill in the final game of regular play.

That 2-1 loss the Lions suffered to Aurora saw Donald Mummery getting the only goal.
