

Supper, band music highlight evening

The Richmond Hill United Church is planning a supper with an international flavour Tuesday September 27. Three sittings are planned from 5 to 8 p.m. followed by an evening of band music provided by the Metropolitan Silver Band.

The band consists of 35 members, all amateur musicians, who buy their own instruments and uniforms.

Meeting is planned for widows, widowers

Widows and widowers are invited to attend a meeting in the community room of the Victoria and Grey Trust building, 10355 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, next Wednesday, Sept. 28, at 8:30 p.m. Anyone who knows a widow or widower who might be interested in this social group, is asked to tell them about this meeting.

entertainment are available at the Richmond Hill United Church office.

They are $5 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12.

Fire destroys large truck

Damage was estimated at $10,000 in a truck fire on Gormley Rd., west of Woodbine Ave., Friday about 8:30 a.m.

The fire in the truck, which was owned by Richmond Sod and Landscaping, Concession 4, Richmond Hill, destroyed the cab, engine and transmission.

Richmond Hill and Whitchurch-Stouffville fire departments were on the scene.

It has all "brass instruments" and has played in competition with other bands, winning some 14 "firsts" in 18 competitions.

In past years, they have played some 1,000 concerts of "pleasant Sunday afternoons" consisting of a varied musical program.

All types of music will be featured next Tuesday such as classics, hymns, novelty tunes, pop tunes and general sing-along music including solos, duets and trios.

The band is led by conductor Alan Moody and makes its home base at Metropolitan United Church.

Square dancers launch season

The Richmond Hill Square Dance Club, better known as the Crazy Eights, is beginning its fall program this week.

The club's beginners' program consists of a basic dance course and proceeds to develop various moves until dancers have learned about 75 moves in the first year.

This can be carried on to intermediate, senior and Club level dancing where the moves become more complicated.

New members are welcome to join either the beginning or intermediate level.

Anyone interested should attend during the next few weeks. For further information call 884-7161.

The beginners' program is Tuesday nights and the program for experienced dancers is Thursdays at 8 p.m. at Roselawn Public School, Carrville Road, Richmond Hill.
