

Finale for Thornhill soccer

Thornhill Minor Soccer Club House League wrapped up its 1977 season with finals matches played on September 24 in each division.

Despite the cold weather, many fans turned out to view the games and lend support to their favorite teams. A dinner and presentation of trophies was held after each game at Thornlea School.

Results of the finals matches were as follows:

SQUIRT DIVISION

Howson Sports and Tunemaster were matched in the final and in a delightful display of soccer from the smallest members of the Thornhill club, Howson Sports won the trophy by a 2-0 score.

The first half was scoreless, but then GREG STAINES scored the eventual winner for Howson and RANDY GWYN added the insurance marker late in the game.

Strong play by STEPHEN ANDERSON and STEVE SUWALA for Howson and by MICHAEL RUSCETTE, SKIP TAYLOR and IAN BAER for Tunemaster made the game that much more enjoyable.

Congratulations to coach FRANK ANDERSON and the boys of his Howson Sports team.

REPRESENTATIVE LEAGUE

Playoff action continued this week as the process of determining the finalists for October 1 continued. Results were as follows:

MINOR BANTAM

Thornhill Lions were eliminated from further competition in a game shortened by the fall of darkness as Richmond Hill defeated them 2-0.

Field conditions were very poor, with much water in evidence. In the losing cause, Thornhill got good work from CARLO BRAVO, CAMPBELL TORRANCE and DON MUMMERY.

Did she, didn't she?

Melanie Starkman of the Gormley L'Equipe 21 Hairstyling team makes a great stop here (or did she?) in this Region of York Inter-District Playoff soccer match last week. Anyway, Keffer Real Estate girls won the game and the championship 3-0.

Final showdown saw Papas edging out Gorman by 230 to 196. John Papas won $4,000 for his first place finish while Don Gorman pocketed $2,000 for second place.

Although Ian Cameron from Richmond Hill and Diane Ingram from Newmarket failed to qualify for the final round, the tournament wasn't a total loss for our area.

Al Snow, who bowls in the Friday Night Majors at Hilltop Lanes, picked up $200 for a day's bowling which also saw a 433 game in a losing effort.

As stated last week, October is the Ontario Kidney Foundation Bowlathon. All money collected during the bowlathon will be used to further the research for a cure of kidney disease.

Sandy Hawley, well known Jockey, is the honorary chairman for "The Great Race" and has pledged his support.

your major prizes-trips for two to each of the four major classic horse races in 1978, the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, the Belmont Stakes and the Queen's Plate.

Coming up this weekend the Master Bowlers travel to Kitchener to bowl in the Oktoberfest Classic.

This tournament is a two-day event with a 10-game qualifying round followed by match play to decide the final winner. It's sponsored by Bowlerama Ltd., and should be a great start for the Masters.

Thornhill Colts lose as win streak ends

All things come to an end and so did the four-game win streak for the Thornhill Colts of the Toronto Touch Football League.

The Colts were fettered 15-14 Tuesday night of last week by the Toronto Packers whom they had beaten earlier.

"They were waiting for us," commented team spokesman John Stevens.

The game was played at West Humber under what Stevens described as "deplorable field conditions due to the rain," which resulted in a low score.

Thornhill's failure to convert its second touchdown cost it the game.

Both Colt touchdowns were set up on intercepted passes by Dave Langley and Steve Overgaard.

Thornhill's Dave Smith was credited with both touchdowns on passes from quarterback Langley.

Smith is now the top scorer in the league to date with 48 points in five games.

Earlier the Colts had chalked up their fourth straight win in a row via a 37-14 breeze over Toronto Hustlers.

The Colts received fine defensive performances from Willie Wilson and Mike Burkart to hold the Hustlers to just two touchdowns.

Offensively it was quarterback Langley leading a diversified attack which saw him tossing four touchdown passes to Mark Edwards, Dave Smith, John Stevens and Duncan McLeod and scoring the other one himself.
