Needs members

Orchestra forms in Oak Ridges

By MILLIE STEWART
A new orchestra has recently been formed. The members are all area residents.
At the present time, there are only a few musicians in this orchestra. They are desperately in need of more members.
Anyone who plays a stringed instrument or percussion would be welcome.

This group is fortunate to have Gene Choi as its conductor and musical director.
Gene received all his musical training in Korea, where he played in several orchestras including the Seoul Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra.

He received special training in conducting in Korea as well.
Gene will arrange the music to suit the musician. If your ability is limited, he will gear your music to you.

The orchestra meets in Oak Ridges and anyone interested in joining the fun is asked to call Hugh Mitchell at 773-5603 or Gene Choi at 773-5531.
This is your opportunity to take your musical instrument out of the closet and get back in the swing of things.

Committee seeks public's opinion

Three public meetings will be held in the first two weeks of November
Seniors plan bus trip to Toledo

Members of the Richmond Hill Senior Citizen's Club 35 are preparing for a bus trip to Toledo, Ohio, October 31.
There will be visits to interesting shopping centres, a fashion show in one of the major department stores, and a tour of the Toledo Museum of Art.
Also included is a buffet dinner at "The Captain's Table", dinner at the "Top of the Tower", and an evening at the Westgate Dinner Theatre.
For further information call Don Hick, 884-1736. Reservations are now being accepted.

to receive public opinion on the formation of a formal health and social planning mechanism for York Region.
One of the meetings will be held in the Richvale area of Richmond Hill.
The meetings are being called by the 17-member Review Committee on Health and Social Planning which was established by York Regional Council in May of this year, to study the question of planning for health and social services in York.
The committee has met on eight occasions, has reviewed information from other parts of the province and has heard briefs from a number of interested agencies and citizens.
Four alternative models for health and social planning in York has been selected.

These will be presented as possibilities, and discussed at the public meetings before any decisions are made.
Following the public participation phase, the committee will submit its final report and recommendations to Regional Council for implementation.

At Richvale, the meeting will be held at the Community Centre, Thursday, November 10 at 8 p.m.
Other meetings are set for Newmarket (November 1) and Keswick (November 2).

United Church rummage sale is on Saturday

The Richmond Hill United Church will hold its fall rummage sale this Saturday, October 15, from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.
Included in the sale will be clothes, toys, china, books, picture frames, patterns, and kitchen items.

Special feature will be "The French Room" where there will be items of better clothing and jewellery.
The Explorers will also have a toy and bake table available.

New cable TV tower should function by end of October

Richmond Hill's answer to the CN Tower is nearing completion.
Classic Communication's new cable television tower should be in operation by the end of this month.

While the new tower will be in operation at the end of October, some reception and distribution will continue from Classicomm's present antenna location on Elgin

Mills Road while preparation work continues throughout the cable system.
The new microwave system and tower will affect some 22,000 cable

TV subscribers in the Region and cable company officials have stated they would welcome inquiries from customers interested in learning more about the project.

Seniors plan fall tour to Kitchener

The Richvale Seniors' fall tour will be to Kitchener, leaving the Lions Hall, Spruce St. at 10 a.m. Oct. 18, and returning at 6 p.m.
Visitors are welcome.
For further information call 889-1645 or 889-7185.
