

Weather drives tennis indoors

By ERIC HANDBURY

In all of the club competitive events this year, almost without exception, the weather has been atrocious and the standard of play excellent.

Because of the rain the last event of the season, the Womens Doubles championship, was played indoors.

In the finals June Beck and Joyce Jones defeated Joy August and Monica Vermeulen 6-4, 6-4.

Although the match went to two sets only it was not a run-away win, with each point closely contested, the match, like so many of the 1977 championships, could have gone any way.

June and Joyce had the narrowest edge of better tennis and the edge prevailed.

The semi-final match of the Junior championships were held Monday with Paul Beck gaining an easy win of 6-0, 6-0.

The other semi-final between Julian Handbury and Richard Vermeulen was not so one-sided and Handbury was lucky to win in two sets with a score of 7-6, 7-5.

For the most part it was a service game with each player holding his services relatively easy.

A service line call given by the linesman could very well have been the turning point in the second set, a point that could perhaps have brought the match to three sets.

Without doubt Vermeulen can be counted among the most promising juniors in the North Central Region and he will be a strong contender in both O.L.T.A. tournaments and club championships.

Annual meeting
The annual general meeting of the club will be held tomorrow (Thursday) at the Blue Flame Room. Every member of the club should try to make a point of being there, the issues for report and debate are not contentious but they are important to the successful running of a very popular club and whatever the suggestion that will improve our organization it will be highly welcome.

Colts winners

The Thornhill Colts got back on the win-track last week with a decisive 46-0 win over the Toronto Panthers in a Toronto Touch Football League game.

Thornhill had previously won their first four games of the season only to be defeated by the Toronto Packers.

There was no such happening against the clawless Panthers as the Colts ran up a 20-0 lead in the first half and kept on rolling the rest of the way.

That first quarter saw Colts' quarterback Dave Langley running for one touchdown and then throwing touchdown passes to Mark Ackley and John Stevens for two others.
