The staff of the three branches of the Richmond Hill Public Library do not only catalogue and dispense books.

They write books as well.

After attending numerous pot luck lunches and dinners, and finding a demand for all the recipes, the staff decided to pool their favorite recipes and write a cook book.

The book is called 'Potluck Pot Pourri' and it contains a variety of scrumptious dishes you can create in your own kitchen.

Copies are available at all three branches of the library for 50 cents each.

Oak Ridges and area residents may purchase their copy at the Charles Connor Memorial Library.
