

Police briefs

Thieves were busy at local shops, homes and cars last week.

John Lauriault of Hunt Ave., Richmond Hill called York Regional Police, who caught one thief in King Township in the wee hours Sunday morning.

Lauriault saw somebody taking gasoline from his car on Dew Street and police sent a cruiser over.

To appear in provincial court Nov. 29 on a charge of theft under $200 is Angelo Mele, 23, of Toronto.

MAN TRAPPED

YRP report they caught Ronald Dowell, 24, of no fixed address at 6:30 p.m. Sunday inside the Firefighters' Club building on Essna Park Drive in the Thornhill area.

A window was broken and he had some money. He was held in custody for a show cause hearing in provincial court.

STEREO STOLEN

Barbara Lewis of 70 Bail Rd., Richmond Hill the night of Oct. 22 had a $200 stereo stolen from her car parked in the underground garage.

Robert Hisey, 239 Anzac Dr., Richmond Hill Saturday night had a $200 loss. From his vehicle parked in his driveway an antenna and power pack with 25-foot cable were stolen. His air horn was damaged the week before.

STEREO EQUIPMENT

Milton Hancock, 404 South Fernleigh Cr., Richmond Hill, left his car parked at his home over the weekend. A tape deck, two speakers and 12 tapes valued at $137 were stolen.

A 10-inch black and white television set worth $100 was stolen during daylight Saturday afternoon in Thornhill.

David Wood of Dalmeny Rd. told police the front door of his house was forced.

FENCE DISAPPEARS

George Milisiewicz, Meadowview Ave., Thornhill had 64 feet of fence stolen from his front yard.

The eight wooden sections each eight feet long and three feet high were valued at $200.

Rosetta Dinsmore, Cricklewood Ct., Thornhill had $500 taken when somebody entered her home between Sept. 16 and Oct. 22.

Wilma Sawyer, Helen Ave., Thornhill, Saturday evening had a tape deck and leather coat valued at $100 taken from her parked car, YRP said.

$293 STORE THEFT

Richmond Tire Sales, Yonge St., Richmond Hill was broken into Friday night through a rear window. From a cash drawer $293.50 was taken.

Frank Defilippo, 45 Duncan Rd., Thornhill Friday night lost $125 worth of items from his parked car.

Somebody smashed a no-draft window, broke the windshield, and made off with three tapes and a microphone.

ARREST JUVENILES

YRP Thursday arrested two juveniles on a Feb. 7 charge of doing mischief over $50.

They were released to their parents to appear in juvenile court Nov. 2.

The charge relates to an incident at E. J. Sand junior public school, Henderson Ave., Thornhill in which the glass was kicked out of two glass doors.

Warren Hodgson, Centre St., Richmond Hill Tuesday night of last week had $150 worth of belongings stolen from his car.

He left it parked and unlocked at Carter Towing, Yonge St., YRP said.

Taken were an eight-track tape and speaker.

THEFT AT HOTEL

Somebody broke into the Huronia Gift Shop at the Black Hawk Motor Inn, Yonge St. between Sept. 30 and Oct. 19. Taken from a cash box was $150.

Daylight thieves broke a back door window Wednesday 1st week at the home of Harold Wilcox, 61 Grandview Ave., Thornhill.

Taken from a bedroom dresser was $428.

LEASED CAR BREAK-IN

Richard Neilson told YRP somebody smashed a window to enter his leased car parked in the underground garage on Baif Blvd. in Richmond Hill to get away with $490 worth of belongings.

Stolen were an eight millimetre movie projector and micro-eye radar detector.

In a break-in at Popeye Submarine, Yonge St., Thornhill in the early morning hours of Oct. 18 a cash register and two pinball machines were forced open.

Stolen were $250 in cash and 50 packages of cigarettes.

A surprised Father C. J. Schwalm was guest of honor Sunday at St. Mary Immaculate Church in Richmond Hill as friends organized a 40th anniversary party for him. Helping him with the cake are Mary Grabarczik, left, and Betty Armstrong.
