

Fire fighters visit children at Connor library

By MILLIE STEWART
Richmond Hill Fire Department is always willing to educate the public in fire prevention, especially the children. Last week, four fire fighters visited the preschool story time at the Charles Connor Library. The program on fire safety delivered by Bill Munro was geared especially for this age group in terms they could understand. The fire fighters assisting them were: Ron Fawn, Al McKenzie and

Rick Lazenby. They allowed the children to try on the fire helmets, which in no way would fit the tiny heads. What really opened the children's eyes was the siren. All children love to hear a siren, and getting to see how it works makes it just that much better. LIBRARY PROGRAMS
The movies for children of all ages will be this Saturday at 2 p.m. The features will be "Towed in a Hole" and "Below Zero" both Laurel and Hardy films.

There will be a short version of "Star Wars" and "Herbie Rides Again". Admission is free, but tickets must be reserved in advance at the library or by calling 773-5533. Magicians appeal to everyone. Rossini, the Magician who is currently entertaining in the Vaughan area will be at the Charles Connor Library for a performance on Saturday, Nov. 5 at 3 p.m. Tickets are free, but they must be reserved and picked up prior to the date of the show. OUR LADY'S GUILD

The next meeting of Our Lady's Guild will be held at Our Lady of the Annunciation school on Bond Cr. on Tuesday, Nov. 1 starting with Mass at 7:45 p.m. in the chapel. There will be a demonstration and sale of jewellery by Mrs. Dee Woolries. BOWLING
The Lake Wilcox 5-Pin League is still looking for more bowlers. They bowl at the

Aurora Bowl on Edward St. in Aurora every Friday night at 9 p.m. If you are interested in bowling, please call Louise Reid at 773-5852. AUXILIARY
The Scout Ladies Auxiliary would like to thank all the merchants and residents for helping to make the recent apple day for the cubs and scouts the most successful ever in this community. MINOR HOCKEY
Registrations for the hockey started off very slowly this season, probably due to the continual rain at that time. Now that the weather seems to be changing, the registrations are picking up throughout the area. There is still some room for boys, and if you still want to register for minor hockey in Oak Ridges, you may do so by calling Bob Vanderlinden at 773-5332. LIONS

The Oak Ridges Lions will once again be holding a Christmas Turkey

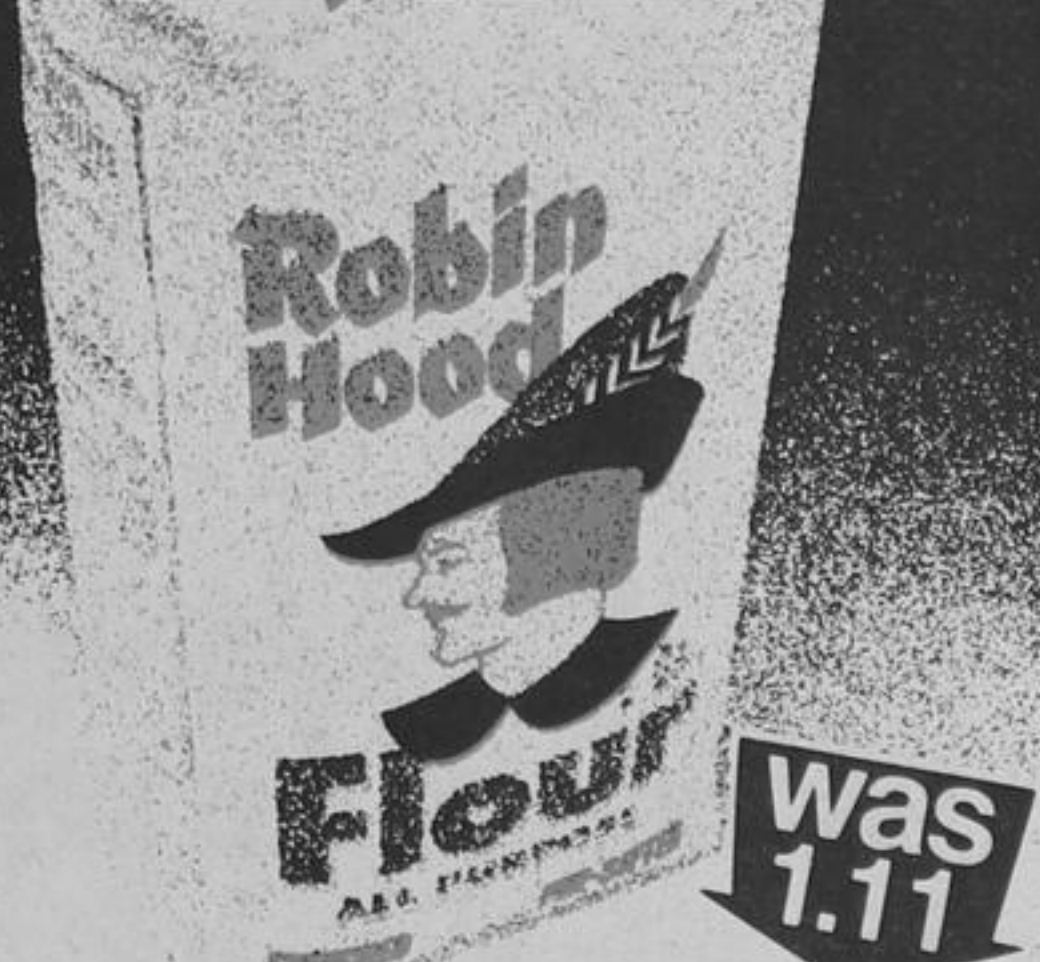

Shoot. This is done on the card system, where you purchase a square or several squares at $1.50 per square. ST. JOHN'S
Tonight at 8 p.m. at St. John's Anglican Church there will be a service of induction for the Rev. Aaron Zull who is the new minister. Arch Deacon, Gerald Loweth of Scarborough will be officiating at the service. The preacher will be Arch Deacon Fred Ongley who is retired and living at the present time in Buckhorn. Other guests will be the Anglican clergy for the York Central Deanery and personal friends of Rev. Zull. SCOUTS AND CUBS

The first Oak Ridges Cubs and Scouts combined their meetings Monday evening to perform several ceremonies. The main ceremony was the Going Up Ceremony. The boys moving up to Scouts were: Harald Vahle, Richard MacAdams, and Leslie Ransome. Due to the fact that the parents were all present, the cubs and scouts decided to hold investiture ceremonies at the same time. Darrin Clayton was invested as a scout. The four boys invested as cubs were: Jay Greavette, John Wayne, Bill Davies, and Thomas Seymour. A special guest for the evening was David Holmes of Thornhill
